before the Mayor in relation to the sad occurrence of Christmas morning—the death of a little girl named Anna Lehr, aged about seven years, resulting from injuries received from having been run over by an omnibus. It appears that the drivers of two of these vehicles, between whom considerable rivalry existed, were racing down Liberty street, and as they turned into Market street, the horses of one of them knocked down the little girl, and the wheels oriminating persons, fully warrants it. He passed over her, from the effects of which she will give a benefit on Monday evening to St. died shortly afterwards. of the 25th December, 1851, between 8 and 9 had two horses attached to it, and just as he and see Horn drilling his company. came to the corner of Market street, the driver whipped his horses and started them into a gallop, and then drew them suddenly close to the corner, when the driver of the other omnibus (the defendant) whipped his horses and drew them so close to the inside omnibus, that the driver of it had to stop or let the defendant's omnibus run against his horses. Defendant's horses were faster than the others, and ran ahead of them, so that the driver had to stop As defendant was passing the other omnibus I heard a piercing cry, and turned round to see what it was; I saw that it was from a little girl | tery. who was just then lying on the street, and the hind wheel of the omnibus that defendant was driving was partly on her body; the wheel was backed off the body, and the girl was carried away by some person; the girl appeared to me to be senseless when taken up.

James Miles, affirmed.—I am foreman for Jas. Cowley, Liberty street; yesterday morning, be tween the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock, I was at the door of No. 185 Liberty street, and saw the omnibuses coming towards Market street, (the "Harmar Denny" and the "New York"); the street coming down, and the "Harmar Denny" was in the middle of the street; both omnibuses were coming down as fast as the horses could trot; just as they passed where I was standing, defendant was driving the "New York," and the two omnibuses were side by side, and defendant raised his whip and struck the off wheel horse; as he turned into Market street the bindmost end of the omnibus the defendant was driving defendant then drew his horses over to the left hand side of the street, as though he wanted to jockey the other omnibus; I then heard the stands 65,000 in favor of Louis Napoleon, and screams, as I supposed, of a child; both omnibus stronged then should be should be stored than should be stored than should be should be stored than should be stored that should be stored that should be stored than should be stored that should be should be stored that should be stored buses stopped then, about Jno. Leyburn, sworn.-I live on Federal street, in the 6th Ward; I was standing on the corner of the Diamond and Market streets on the 25th of December, 1851, between 8 and 9 o'clock, and looking down Market street, saw a pair of horses enter Market street out of Liberty street, and immediately after, an omnibus came round the corner and cut in across the first one, which stopped immediately; I then heard a cry, and immediately saw a child under the feet of the horses; I ran down and took hold of the wheel horse of the omnibus driven by the defendant; the child was then in between the wheels of the omnibus, when two men were in the act of pulling it out, when I laid hold of the horses; the child that was injured was a little girl, and her mother stated her age to be seven years; I afterwards saw the child at the doctor's office; it was dead. Joseph Arnold, sworn .- I live with Mr. Simon Goldman, No. 118 Market street; I was standing on the corner of Market and Liberty streets street; one of the omnibuses ran ahead of the other; I saw the horses run over a little girl;

The evidence given at the inquest which was held upon the body was nearly to the same effect, only, if possible, more conclusive-proving more clearly that the occurrence was solely owing to fast driving. Dr. McCracken was sworn, nd testified that he had made an examination of the body, and found that the left lung had been crushed. The lower portion of the abdomen was also injured, as well as the head; any one of which injuries was sufficient to cause

The jury, after a few moments' deliberation, endered the following verdict: "We, the Coroner's Jury, do give as our verdict, that Anna ehr came to her death in consequence of injuries received by being run over by the horses attached to an omnibus, and by the passing over her body of the wheel of said omnibus, and that the cause of said passing over was the inordinate driving of the driver, John Griffin." I took three bottles myself, last fail, and emjoyed perfect health last winter, for the first winter, for eleven years, being troubled with a severe erupidon of the skin, which laid me up from two weeks to fost months every winter and spring, until last winter. Henry E. Jones, a brother merchant and a particular friend of mine, took two bottles of the Yellow Dock for a Seronicous Erupilon, which thas worked an entire ears.
