December 30, 1851. River Intelligence, &c. Yesterday morning there were 11 feet of water in the channel by the pier marks, but in what, and last evening at dusk there were but 10 feet in the channel. We may now consider that navigation has been fairly resumed. The magnificent steamer Cincinnati, commanded by one of the best fellows in the world, Capt. JOHN BIRMINGHAM, leaves this morning at 11 o'clock with a heavy freight. She is the first of the Cincinnati packets to leave since the resumption of navigation. The Brilliant, Capt. GRACE, departs to-morrow, and the Pittsburgh, Capt.

Courier of the 23d has the following: RIVER DISASTER.—We learn from Mr. J. I Skiles, who reached the city yesterday, that four flat floats were cut to pieces, and sunk by the ice near Brandenburg, and that many others were in imminent danger. The boats sunk were laden with coal, produce, flour and lumber. The lumber boat belonged to Thos. Smith, of Pitts townsman, Alex. McCammon, Esq., distinguished

A trading boat was smashed up in the ice near Mauckport, and the steamers Jno. Swasey and Warren were ice-bound at the mouth of Bull creek, and the latter was reported to be in a staking condition. The John Swasey was also ving in a critical position.

DREADEUL SUFFERING.—We learn that there were a great number of emigrants on the steamer Saranae, from New Orleans, that was aground at Flint Island last week, who were exposed to the intense cold weather that prevailed, and some ten or twelve of their number were so badly frost-bitten as to loose the use of their limbs.

LOSS OF LIFE ON THE CEEBMONT .- The Memphis Eagle and Enquirer gleans the following further particulars of this unfortunate accident from the White River Commercial, received from the Clerk of the Julia Dean: The steamer Clermont, No. 2, from Memphis, when near Augusta, on White river, on the even-ing of the 4th inst., was snagged and sunk instantly in deep water, carrying with her twenty-two persons, who, at the time, were asleep on the deck. The officers, crew and cabin passengers were all saved.
