Double Iron Melodeon.
THE subscriber has just opened a very fine Melodeon, 5 octaves, with double set of reeds, made by the original inventors, Carhardt and Needham, New York. This instrument is equal in point of power and volume to any small organ, and far preferable to it for its sweetness of tone, capacity to stand in tune and facility for transporting. These instruments are made expressly for church use, and owing to the lowness of price are fast superseding the organ. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine this fine Melodeon previous to its leaving the subscriber's warerooms, it having been purchased by a congregation in this city.

Remarkable Cures.
BY THE USE OF DR. HOUGHTON'S PEPSINE.
From Dr. Houghton's New Book of Cases & Correspondence. Case 1.—Mrs. A. Sweeney.

[illegible] DYSPEPSIA.—This lady was very sparing in her diet; had nursed unusuccessfully; had nursed unconsciously; had unusual uneasiness and pain in the pit of the stomach; heart-burn; sour eructations; bowels costive; dull, stupefying sensation in the head; complaints of two years standing. Dose taken in the morning. Came back in a week; said that the pain had not been "half so bad" since taking the first dose, and was daily improving in every respect. Appetite increased; tongue cleaner; bowels regular; head still relieved. In another week she was entirely free from any unpleasant pain in the stomach [raised no acid fluids; head felt clear; and every trace of the stomach complaint entirely removed.

ever presented to the world. By his treatment founded on observations made in the hospitals of Europe and America, he will insure a perfect cure in from two to five days, if applied to early.
Office No. 63 SMITHFIELD St., Pittsburgh.
A CERTAIN CURE.—When the anguished victory of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ignorant sense of shame, or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who from education and respectability can alone befriend him, delaying all the constitutional symptoms and the disease makes their appearance, affecting the head, throat, nose, skin, &c., ending in decay and death.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.
Dr. B. addresses those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgence, that secret and solitary habit which ruins both body and mind, uniting them for either business or society.
These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs; Pain in the Head, Dimness of Sight; Loss of Muscular Power; Palpitation of the Heart; Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Consumption, &c. &c.
Mentally the fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forbodings, aversion to society, self distrust, love of solitude, timidity, &c.; these are some of the evils produced. Such persons should before contemplating

For Females and Children.
DR. LARZETTE'S JUNO CORDIAL, or Procrenative Elixir, prescribed as an effectual restorative in cases of debility, impotency, barrenness, and all irregularities of nature. It is all that it professes to be—viz: Nature's great restorative, and remedy for those in the married state without issue. It is a certain cure for seminal emissions, general debility, gleet, weakness of the genital organs, nervous affections, incontinence of urine. As a vigorating medicine it is unequalled.—Also, a certain remedy for incipient Consumption, indigestion, loss of muscular energy, physical lassitude, female weakness, debility, &c. It is warranted to please the user in any of the above complaints, and is of priceless value to those without offspring.
To spread wide the blessings of this medicine I have appointed Messrs. Judson & Co., of the city of New York, in the United States of America, my sole agents for its sale; and none can be genuine unless it comes through them, and their signatures are on the wrapper.
