XXXII CONGRESS-FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31: The Senate was not in session to day. The House met, and again went into Commit-tee of the Whole on the state of the Union, upon the resolution for the appointment of a commitburpose of inviting Gov. Kossuth as the guest of tee of five to wait upon Kossuth and introduce nm to the House.

Mr. Clingman moved a resolution to stop de-bate upon it in half an hour ; upon which vari-ous questions of order were raised, and the yeas , and nays were called for several times before it , W. Irwin, E. D. Gazzam, L. Sahl, was disposed of. Mr. Jones, of Tennessee, remarked that to-morrow would be New Year's Day, and a good to morrow would be new tent a Day, has a good many houses would be open, members who may yisit them would not probably be in a condition for business next day, and he would therefore move that when the House adjourn it adjourn until Saturday next. The motion was negaived. The resolution to limit the debate was finally

The resolution to limit the debate was many adopted, and the resolution was then under con-sideration, until 8 o'clock. The House being occupied with various amend-ments, and the calling of the roll upon them, is still in session at 9 o'clock, P. M.

FROM WASHINGTON. WASHINGTON, Dec 81

The several members of the Cabinet and large number of members of Congress were pre sented to Governor Kossuth this morning, in his private reception room; and at twelve o'clock he Governor and his suite proceeded to the ial mansion in company with Mr. Webster, and Messra. Shields and Seward, of the Senate committee, and were prese ed to Mr. Fillmore. The interview was strictly private, being confined to the parties named and a few intimate personal friends of the President. Intimate personal friends of the President. There was a very beautiful serenade to Kos-such last night at 11 o'clock. He came out and briefly: addressed the people, returning his thanks for the compliment.

The Intelligencer of this morning states that His Excellency the Minister of France called esterday at the Department of State by direction of his government, and officially announced that the President of the French Republic had adopted a great measure of public safety-that a Chief of State he owed to six millions of French men who had elected him, and to the world which had received his nomination as a new err in the tranquillity of France, to prevent her from a revolution from which the world might we ecoil ;--that, strong in his consciousness of patriotism in repelling the dangers which threaten France and Europe without end, he has invited the nation to a free choice of a firm and durable government;---that he has appealed to suffrage, all in the movement, so solemn to the country, and thought that this appeal ought to enlighten Europe and the world in regard to his object. The House had before it, yesterday, in Committee of the Whole, the resolution for the ap-pointment of a Committee to Introduce Kossuth to the House, but arrived at no action upon it the President, to-day, and on Friday will be presented to the Senate. There will be no peaking in the Senate. The President and Mr. Webster will each give him a dinner. Tarrisburgh-
