

Daily Morning Post

FRIDAY MORNING, JANUARY 23

CONTENTS.—The colored man Claggett, who was tried this week in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, for the murder of another colored man, named Saunders, has been found guilty. The District judge, for the prosecution, followed by E. P. Jones, Esq., for the defense, and District Attorney Flanagan, for the prosecution, Judge Johnson changed the jury at length, when they retired.

The jury returned at nine o'clock last night, and asked the Judge whether the weapon used by the prisoner in this case, and the circumstances—implied that the Honor, with much feeling, declared that it was his unpleasant duty to answer these questions in the affirmative. A juror asked whether they should take into consideration the fact as to whether the prisoner was intoxicated or not? His Honor replied that there were degrees of drunkenness, but that he remembered no evidence which would go to prove that the prisoner was so drunk as to have lost all power over his will. He might have drunk enough to make him devilish. The jury again retired, and at half past ten o'clock returned a verdict of Guilty of Murder in the First Degree. The prisoner was remanded.

We believe that this is the first colored man who has been found guilty of murder in the first degree, since the case of Galligo, who was executed some time since.

We have been requested to state that the Treasury of the Young Ladies' Benevolent Society is now in a very precarious condition. There have been many calls upon the Society, and many are being daily made. Any thing designed to aid in furthering the objects of the Society, may be left at Box No. 14, in the Post Office, or at the session room of the First Presbyterian Church, where the Society will meet this evening.

Hi! FOA CALIFORNIA.—The company of young men, residents of Sligo and our own city, who were to have left on the steamer California, for that port yesterday morning on the cars. They were detained on account of the heavy fall of snow on the mountains. Success to them.

CHEMICAL DEMONSTRATIONS.—This splendid exhibition will be open again this evening, commencing at 7 o'clock.

FRESH BUTTERED BREAD, daily by Adams' Press, at the WAREHOUSE, Diamond Alley.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS. BY THE OREGON LINE. XXXIII COMMERCIAL—FIRST EDITION.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22. House.—Mr. Houston's resolution in relation to the debate on the Mexican indemnity bill, at ten o'clock to-morrow afternoon, which was agreed to.

Mr. Briggs called up his resolution inquiring into the expediency of Mr. Bernheimer, delegate from the State of Georgia, to be elected to the Senate.

Mr. Stephens, of Georgia, was opposed to the election of Mr. Bernheimer to warrant an interference of fraud.

Mr. Bernheimer, with much vehemence, denied the truth of the charges made against him, and sent the certificate of his election to the chair to be read to the house, showing the purity of his character.

Mr. Stephens and others, up the favor of the resolution of Mr. Briggs.

Mr. Egerton, opposed the bill in considerable length, and concluded strongly with Mr. Stephens, who made no reply, but gave out that it must stand and should not need a discussion.

Messrs. Gray and Fowler followed, and the Committee then rose, and the House adjourned.

Mr. Dancy introduced a resolution in relation to the payment of the Mexican indemnity.

COMMERCIAL.

PRICES OF STOCKS.

Table listing various stocks and their prices, including United States, Pennsylvania, and other regional securities.

MARKET REVIEW OF THE MARKETS.

REMARKS.—The market is generally quiet, with some activity in the stock market. Prices are generally steady, with a slight decline in some sectors.

There has been a steady demand for various commodities, particularly in the agricultural sector. Prices for grain and other staples remain relatively stable.

The market for foreign exchange shows some volatility, with rates fluctuating due to international trade conditions. There is a general expectation of stability in the near future.

Commodity prices are generally firm, with some upward pressure in certain areas. The market is well-supplied, but demand remains strong.

The market for bonds is quiet, with prices holding steady. There is a steady flow of new issues, but trading volume is low.

There is a general sense of optimism in the market, supported by positive news from various sectors. Investors are looking for continued growth and stability.

The market for metals is active, with prices for various types of iron and steel showing some volatility. Demand is strong, particularly in the construction industry.

The market for textiles is quiet, with prices for various types of cloth remaining steady. There is a steady demand for these goods, particularly in the domestic market.

The market for sugar is active, with prices showing some volatility. There is a steady demand for sugar, particularly in the food and beverage industries.

The market for oil is quiet, with prices for various grades of oil remaining steady. There is a steady demand for oil, particularly in the transportation sector.

The market for various other commodities is active, with prices for a wide range of goods showing some volatility. Demand is strong across most sectors.

The market for various other commodities is active, with prices for a wide range of goods showing some volatility. Demand is strong across most sectors.

The market for various other commodities is active, with prices for a wide range of goods showing some volatility. Demand is strong across most sectors.

COMMERCIAL.

PRICES OF STOCKS.

Table listing various stocks and their prices, including United States, Pennsylvania, and other regional securities.

MARKET REVIEW OF THE MARKETS.

REMARKS.—The market is generally quiet, with some activity in the stock market. Prices are generally steady, with a slight decline in some sectors.

There has been a steady demand for various commodities, particularly in the agricultural sector. Prices for grain and other staples remain relatively stable.

The market for foreign exchange shows some volatility, with rates fluctuating due to international trade conditions. There is a general expectation of stability in the near future.

Commodity prices are generally firm, with some upward pressure in certain areas. The market is well-supplied, but demand remains strong.

The market for bonds is quiet, with prices holding steady. There is a steady flow of new issues, but trading volume is low.

There is a general sense of optimism in the market, supported by positive news from various sectors. Investors are looking for continued growth and stability.

The market for metals is active, with prices for various types of iron and steel showing some volatility. Demand is strong, particularly in the construction industry.

The market for textiles is quiet, with prices for various types of cloth remaining steady. There is a steady demand for these goods, particularly in the domestic market.

The market for sugar is active, with prices showing some volatility. There is a steady demand for sugar, particularly in the food and beverage industries.

The market for oil is quiet, with prices for various grades of oil remaining steady. There is a steady demand for oil, particularly in the transportation sector.

The market for various other commodities is active, with prices for a wide range of goods showing some volatility. Demand is strong across most sectors.

The market for various other commodities is active, with prices for a wide range of goods showing some volatility. Demand is strong across most sectors.

The market for various other commodities is active, with prices for a wide range of goods showing some volatility. Demand is strong across most sectors.

COMMERCIAL.

PRICES OF STOCKS.

Table listing various stocks and their prices, including United States, Pennsylvania, and other regional securities.

MARKET REVIEW OF THE MARKETS.

REMARKS.—The market is generally quiet, with some activity in the stock market. Prices are generally steady, with a slight decline in some sectors.

There has been a steady demand for various commodities, particularly in the agricultural sector. Prices for grain and other staples remain relatively stable.

The market for foreign exchange shows some volatility, with rates fluctuating due to international trade conditions. There is a general expectation of stability in the near future.

Commodity prices are generally firm, with some upward pressure in certain areas. The market is well-supplied, but demand remains strong.

The market for bonds is quiet, with prices holding steady. There is a steady flow of new issues, but trading volume is low.

There is a general sense of optimism in the market, supported by positive news from various sectors. Investors are looking for continued growth and stability.

The market for metals is active, with prices for various types of iron and steel showing some volatility. Demand is strong, particularly in the construction industry.

The market for textiles is quiet, with prices for various types of cloth remaining steady. There is a steady demand for these goods, particularly in the domestic market.

The market for sugar is active, with prices showing some volatility. There is a steady demand for sugar, particularly in the food and beverage industries.

The market for oil is quiet, with prices for various grades of oil remaining steady. There is a steady demand for oil, particularly in the transportation sector.

The market for various other commodities is active, with prices for a wide range of goods showing some volatility. Demand is strong across most sectors.

The market for various other commodities is active, with prices for a wide range of goods showing some volatility. Demand is strong across most sectors.

The market for various other commodities is active, with prices for a wide range of goods showing some volatility. Demand is strong across most sectors.

Bankers and Brokers.

Patrick & Friend, Bankers and Brokers.

William A. Hill & Co., Bankers and Brokers.

Bankers and Brokers, listing various financial institutions and their services.

Bankers and Brokers, listing various financial institutions and their services.

Bankers and Brokers, listing various financial institutions and their services.

Bankers and Brokers, listing various financial institutions and their services.

Bankers and Brokers, listing various financial institutions and their services.

Bankers and Brokers, listing various financial institutions and their services.

Bankers and Brokers, listing various financial institutions and their services.

Bankers and Brokers, listing various financial institutions and their services.

Bankers and Brokers, listing various financial institutions and their services.

Bankers and Brokers, listing various financial institutions and their services.

Bankers and Brokers, listing various financial institutions and their services.

Bankers and Brokers, listing various financial institutions and their services.

Bankers and Brokers, listing various financial institutions and their services.

Bankers and Brokers, listing various financial institutions and their services.

Bankers and Brokers, listing various financial institutions and their services.

Bankers and Brokers, listing various financial institutions and their services.

FOR SALE & TO LET.

Real Estate Listings.

Real Estate Listings, including property for sale and lease.

Real Estate Listings, including property for sale and lease.

Real Estate Listings, including property for sale and lease.

Real Estate Listings, including property for sale and lease.

Real Estate Listings, including property for sale and lease.

Real Estate Listings, including property for sale and lease.

Real Estate Listings, including property for sale and lease.

Real Estate Listings, including property for sale and lease.

Real Estate Listings, including property for sale and lease.

Real Estate Listings, including property for sale and lease.

Real Estate Listings, including property for sale and lease.

Real Estate Listings, including property for sale and lease.

Real Estate Listings, including property for sale and lease.

Real Estate Listings, including property for sale and lease.

Real Estate Listings, including property for sale and lease.

Real Estate Listings, including property for sale and lease.

Real Estate Listings, including property for sale and lease.

Drugs and Medicines.

Pharmaceutical Advertisements.

Advertisement for various medicines and drugs.

Advertisement for various medicines and drugs.

Advertisement for various medicines and drugs.

Advertisement for various medicines and drugs.

Advertisement for various medicines and drugs.

Advertisement for various medicines and drugs.

Advertisement for various medicines and drugs.

Advertisement for various medicines and drugs.

Advertisement for various medicines and drugs.

Advertisement for various medicines and drugs.

Advertisement for various medicines and drugs.

Advertisement for various medicines and drugs.

Advertisement for various medicines and drugs.

Advertisement for various medicines and drugs.

Advertisement for various medicines and drugs.

Advertisement for various medicines and drugs.

Advertisement for various medicines and drugs.