Among all the demonstrations in favor of the Among all the demonstrations in favor of the cause of Hungary and Liberty, not one was more effective than that of the Ladies, which was held in the Second Presbyterian Church: but this is not to be wondered at,—for the Ladies are always foremost in works of Love and Mercy, even as their feelings are more pure and their devotion more intense than ours. They early set the ball in motion for the Hungarian cause; and the soldiers, and no hope in the breast of the bravest—it was the resources of his will, and the resources of his mind, raised armies, and rot to be wondered at,—for the Ladies are always foremost in works of Love and Mercy, even as their feelings are more pure and their devotion more intense than ours. They early set the ball in motion for the Hungarian cause; and the nations listened to his principles and his mission; and the nations listened to his cause, and the resources of his mind, raised armies, and clothed them, and armed them, and armed them, and inspired the people with confidence, and led it from victory to victory, till the symbol of double-faced Austria—the double-faced be added to the second of the Hungary. and its vicinity. The Marsellies Affair.

Since the publication of the correspo concerning the outrageous conduct of some of the officers of the Mississippi, and the Consul a Marseilles, towards the illustrious guest of the nation, we have heard but one opinion express ed by the public, which is, that the officers should be immediately tried by a Court Martial the Navy. Hodge should get permission to live liberal sentiments and humane hearts to take their place. The application to Congress from ging in the navy, shows that there are men in the service of the country no better than the Russian or Austrian tools of tyranny, and the sooner the service is rid of them the better .-The testimony of Com. Stockton in the United States Senate is evidence to the point. We hope the Marseilles business will be probed to the bottom, and the proper remedy applied for the good of the navy and the honor of the nation.

Mr. Buchanan in North Carolina. The Wilmington Journal of Dec. 18th, has a leading editorial devoted to the consideration of the duty of the Democracy of North Carolins, in reference to the Presidential question, from which we extract the following, as to the sentiment of that State It will be remembered, that when in 1840 and '48, the Whigs succeeded in electing good but weak old men to the Presidency, the country was democratic, and we were beaten by her own want of harmony. Let us avoid this in '52. For our own part, we have no hesitation in saying, that we believe that Mr. Buchanan is the first choice of North Carolina, and we should like to see him nominated, but we will make no Baltimore Convention agree with us, and the nominee plants himself unreservedly upon it.

It was important for them that the opinion should be spread that besides Kossuth there are yet other leaders in exile, who do not subordinate themselves to the man whom the People had elected its chief; that there lives in Paris a Count, who puts himself forward as the Representative of the Hungarians aristocracy. What an excellent argument for our enemies to say that there are such divisions among the Hungarians, as make it impossible for any power to give efficient aid to them. the excuse that he would countenance Count C.

Paris. This plan too, was well devised, and the Count went into the snare. Though appointed by Governor Kossuth, his minister of Foreign Affairs, he does not see that he becomes the Affairs, he does not see that he becomes the tool of his country's enemies. Instead of reoccing that there is a man who, at the same only served his country in her bloody conflicts, time, commands the confidence of his people and British coast. The writer, in conversation with time, commands the commands the commands the commands the commands the commands the world, him, learned the following remarkable facts:—

WORK TO-DAY. BY SAMUEL M'NUTT Let us now he up and doing.
Let us work while it is day;
Soon the shades of night shall gather
O'et our dim, receding way.
Ere the silver cord is broken,
And our feeble life is o'er,
Let us work to-day in 'earnest,
For to day shall come no more. Our few years are swiftly passing,

And our hearts are growing old; /olees of the ages tell us, Life has labors munifold. lere to each of us is given Work on earth's wide harvest plain; Work that we to-day must fin For to-day comes not again Gird thee for the task, my brother, Firmly meet the toil and strife; It is death to sleep or waver on the battle-field of life. Raise thy faint and erring brother, Guide him in the path of right; Let thy kindness cheer the weary; Guard the friendless in thy might

Life is not the time for slumber.
Hate and danger mar the road,
Men yet dwell in sin and darkness,
In the vineyard of thy God.
Lift thy voice to wandering mortals.
Speak the truth that all may heur;
Nobly combat wrong and error,
Firm in purpose, without fear. God is o'er thee! Truth is migtny—
Faith and love are wondtons strong
Songs of triumph wait on labor,
All high decds to her belong.
Natural works! True life is action;
Brother, wield this godlike power;
Live and act to-day in earnest.
Act and live thy little hour.

I had an operation performed, and the thickening removed, which soon returned and left me in as bad a condition as before. At this stage of the complaint I made application to several of the most eminent medical men, who informed me that "my eyes would never get well." At this time I could not distinguish any object. By the advice of some friends I commenced the use of the Petroleum, both internally and locally, under which my eyes have improved daily antil the present time, and I have recovered my sight entirely. My general health was very much improved by the Petroleum, and I attribute the restoration of my sight to its use.
