Saint Valentine's day is a great day for thos who have not been caught in the matrimonial trap; and from the appearance of the windows of the toy shops, we think they will all be supremely happy to-day. THE DIORAMAS.-Mr. Winter gives an exhib tion of his Chemical Dioramas and Dissolving Views, this evening, at Lafayette Hall. As this is the last time that these charming views will be exhibited in our city, we hope there will be a good attendance at the Hall to-night. During their stay here, they have given universal satisfaction to the numerous persons who have vis-Ited them. For the benefit of the young folks, Mr. Winter will give an exhibition this aftermoon, at 3 o'clock. San Juan was healthy, at the sailing of the Daniel Webster, but business was dull, the market being overstocked with all kinds of goods. The transit route is in excellent co

There were no passengers waiting at San Juan, for a passage to San Francisco.
On the night of the 4th of February, a destructive fire occurred in the city of San Juan de Nicaragua, by which one third of the most populous section of the city was destroyed. Among the buildings destroyed, was the United States Hotel; besides a large number of houses and stores. The city was not provided with engines. Lieut. Armstrong, and a detachment of men from the United States sloop Albany, were contingent fund, which was satisfactory. There had been but two nights, when the thermometer fell below freezing point. Green Peas are in bloom, as well as wild and garden flowers. The all-absorbing question in politics, seem to be the re-election of United States Senator. he candidates most talked of among the Democrats are Col. Weller, Gov. Smith, Col. Pinley, idge Rallston, and Gen. Anderson. The Whigs nave not as yet named their candidates.

A new organization of the Police of San Francisco has taken place. The Indian Chief, Anthony Gasla, who was arrested for being concerned in the outrage in South Carolina, had been tried and shot at the old town of San Diego.

A detachment of United States troops were about to march to Colorado, under Major Heintselman, on Tuesday.

An injunction was laid by Judge Redman on the State officers who were about to remove the ublic archives from San Jose. A man named J. Q. William girl whom he had seduced. After the woman bad fired one shot, (which took effect in the victim's side,) she was about to fire again, but was prevented by the bystanders. The man lies in critical condition. Great excitement exists in Downesville in consequence of the great discoveries of new mines of gold-bearing quartz, in that vicinity. Six different veins have been turned up within ten days, the ore from which, is said to be exceedingly rich.

The trials of Captain Waterman and his mate are still progressing. On other indictments the crew of the Challenge were to be put upon their trial for mutiny about the middle of January. The extensive quicksilver works of Bolton, Barron & Co., are now running seven furances, the largest of which yields 400 bottles per week.
The difficulties respecting the State Capital continued to be a source of much discord.

The Legislature had determined in meeting at Sacramento, and assembled there for the first time, on the 16th of January, when they were welcomed with shouts by the people. It had given quite an impetus to the business of Sacramento, which was more animated than it had been for many months.

A Settlers' and Miners' Convention was in session at San Francisco. Resolutions inviting the State officers and the Legislature to seats, had been laid on the table.

In Marysville, a large sized piece of goldbearing quartz was found, weighing about six pounds, was taken from the Kentucky Ridge, near Newtown, and is supposed to contain about $2000 in gold of the richest kind. The papers contain Gov. Bigler's inaugural address, and Lieut. Gov. Hardy's address to the Senate. Gov. Bigler contends that the mines should be as feed on all Sende be as free as air.

The steamer Gold Hunter was to leave for San Juan and Panama, on the 17th of January.
