Sad Accident .- A sad accident eccurred in Al egheny city, yesterday morning about 9 o'clock, which resulted in the death of Mr. Wm. McKelvy a citizen of the Fourth Ward. Ho was lying at the bottom of a deep stairway, leading to the cellar kitchen of a dwelling in Isabella street: As soon as it was discovered that he was dead, Coroner Arthurs was sent for, and a jury sworn. It appeared by the testimony given before the jurors, that the deceased was in good health during the morning; that he had walked from his dwelling to some of his neighbors houses; had called in at the dwelling of Mr. Ferguson, and began to play with a little hoy about two years old, and started off with the child to boy some cakes. He purchased the cakes and returned to the house. On attempting to descend the outside cellar stairway, he fell with his head of literature, poetry, and historical composition downward. Dr. Elliot was called to examine the body, man of his age. From this testimony the jury decided that Mr. McKelvy came to his death by falling down is deep stairway of a dwelling house that date up to the present time.

The speaker mainly considered that portion of back with a light, and discovered that three notes had been bored through the back door of the number of men, possessing greater talents and number of men, possessing greater talents and liborty, or animated by higher and more patriotic motives, and a fourth one, was nearly through. He also found a brace, with a large bit in it, —they sat with closed doors, and their great maxim was "faire some etcire."

Attempted Robbery .- Some villian broke into the house of Rev. Dr. McClaren, in Sandusky street, Allegheny city, on Monday night, but was fortunately prevented from securing snything by the wakefulness of Mrs. Mc-Claren. He entered the house by prying open the window shutters, and hoisting window. When he found that he was discovered, and a light was about to be struck, he broke down stairs and made his escape through the door-way into the street.

BY THE ORDILLY LINE XXXII CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION. Washington, Feb. 24. WASHINGTON, rep. 24.

SENATE.—Mr. Cooper reported a petition for the modification of the tariff, and against the Woodworth patent.

Mr. Mason, from the committee on foreign reations, reported against an investigation into the decision of the late board of Commissioners in claims against Mexico.

Mr. Gwinn reported a bill, increasing the pay officers of the army and navy engaged in Californis and Oregon.

Mr. Borland introduced a resolution declaring that each State should, at the next Presidential election, be entitled to electoral votes equal to what it is entitled to under the enumeration of 850, and not under 1840 The bill: granting land to lows for the construction of certain railroads, was taken up, and Mr. Green addressed the Senate in its support.

The Senate adjourned.

The House resumed the consideration of the bill granting the right of way, and a donation of public land to Missouri for the construction of a railroad from St. Joseph to Hanpibal, and from St. Louis to the western line of the state. the state.
Mr. Orr, of South Carolina, advocated the bill, and urged the propriety of the govern-ment granting lands asked for such purposes. He quoted the speeches of Calhoun, Cass and there in support of his position.
Mr. Welch, of Ohio, gave notice that he would ntroduce an amendment to the bill, which he explained by saying, that it proposes to take the road from St. Louis, and thence to the western line of Missouri, through the states of Illinois, Indiana and part of Ohio, to Cincinnati, thence to some point on the line of Washington county n the Ohio river, at or near Marietta, or a town n Virginia, on the opposite shore; and thence on to the Three Forks, on the line of the Balti more and Ohio Railroad in Virginia. Before concluding, the morning hour expired, and the House went into committee on the bouny land law, but without coming to a conclusion the committee arose.

Mr. Darby, of Missouri, who was stricken with paralysis the day before Congress met, was brought into the House for the first time, in a chair, and the Speaker left his place and went down to him, and administered to him the onth The House then adjourned.

Mr. John D. Park—Dear Sir; it is with unuturable feelings or gratitude that I am able, through the Divine Providence of God, and by the wonder-working spency of that excellent medicine, "Guyzotit's Vellow Dook and Sareaperilla," to give you a lew symptoms of my, almost hopeless case.

In the winter of 1850, I was unacked with a neveropoin, which was gradually extending hirogic hile, whole sight side and leg; at the same time, a total prostration of my physical system also; my leg had shrante on thour two-thirds of its common; size. I procured the attendance of a skilful practitioner, who prolomoned my disease one of the worst forms of liver complaint. He said my ease was one on the worst forms of liver complaint. Mr. John D. Park.—Dear Sir. I am out of your Wissing's Balsam of Wild Cherry, "and "Dr. Gnyzot's Extract of Vellow Dock and Sarsaparilla." Please, forward a supply immediately.

Your Balsam of Wild Cherry worked to a charm hers.—not a bottle failed of affording immediate relief, and invery instance but one (an old grentlemn of Tyears of age), ir cured, and the Yellow Dock has done equally as well. I took three bottles myself, last fail, and employed perfect bealth last winter, for the first winter or deven years, being troubled with a severe employed of the skin, which laid me up from two weeks to folk months every winter and spring, until last winter.

Herry E. Jones, a brother merchant and a particular friend of mine, took two boules of the Yellow Dock for a Scontolous Erupion, which has worked an entire ente.
