Boily Worning Post. TUESDAY MORNINGTON MARCH 2, 1861 Business on the wharf was brisk yester. day being favored by the nnusually pleasant weather. There was 10 feet water in the channel, by the pier mark, last night at dusk. We copy the following items from the Louis ville Courier, Peb. 26th : The River and Weather .- The river cont The Ricer and Weather—The river contained rising at this point, with 11 feet 8 inches water in the canal, and 8 feet on the falls last evening. During the previous 24 hours the riverhad risen 12 inches. The weather is clear and quite The steamer Alton on her way to S ouis from New Orleans, struck a bluff bar Island 16, and was compelled to lighten off portion of her cargo. A flatboat was used for parting of the steamer to the shore, the waves of a passing boat caused the flat to sink, and nearly all the freight on board was badly damaged. TICKETS FOR THE LADIES' FESTIVAL. - We as requested to state that tickets for the Ladies Festival, at Lafayette Hall, on Thursday evening next, March 4th, may be obtained at J. L. Read's Book Store, 4th street, W. A. Gildenfenny & lish & Co's., Book store, Wood street, John H. Mellor's Music store, Holmes' Depot, 8d street, and at the offices of the Post and Gazette. Price 50 cents. The Police Committee and Night Watch .- Last night the Police Committee, backed by their be Night Watch, and a large mob, marched to the Mayor's Office, and demanded possession of the watch house. This was refused them, and imme diately thereon, they broke open the front door of the watch house, exclaiming that they would they committed further burglarious acts-that orders had been received from the Mayor to they could not have it without breaking open the When the valiant Committee found their furproceeded to call the roll for the new watch; and afterwards, we believe, the watch went on duty. A considerable crowd gathered round the doors to witness an affray, for which the Police Committice and its men were evidently prepared. We only give facts now, and shall comment herewakened by the noise of some one in his stateroom on the steamer Diadem, and demanding to know what was wanted, the thief made a polite npology about mistaking the number of his berth, and retired. In the morning he discovered that his watches and all the money that was in his pockets had been stolen. On the same night the pockets er, of the steamer Honduras, and of Mr. Mason, one of the owners of the boat, were rifled of their contents; and soveral attempts to go abourd of other boats, were made by suspicious looking profitable business. Although both these roads are yet but partially completed, they are beginning to exercise a mighty influence on our comand capital of this city, and bringing directly in communication the producers of these regions and the city consumers and dealers. Allegheny Bridge.-At an election held yesterday for officers of the St. Clair street Bridge, the following named gentlemen were chosen for the ensuing year. President, John Irwin, Managers, Thomas Bakewell, James Anderson, Joseph P. Gazzam, John Graham, Sylvanus Lothrop. Lewis Hutchison, Wm. Holmes, Solomon Stoner, Henry Palmer, Hugh D. Mc-Callough, doing business under the name of John Black & Co., on the corner of Liberty and Irwin streets. The Lecture last night, by the Rev. John Lord on the character of Hildebrand, was well received by a tolerably large audience; and was equal to their expectations. Dr. Lord possesses strength as a writer, and takes a most comprehensive survey of his subject. His manner is earnest and elicits the most profound attention. His subject to night is "Gustavus Adolphus." County Jail .- There were three men commitments by Alderman Steel, for drunkenness, yesterday. Alderman Major committed Jane T. R. Jones, on a charge of vagrancy, for 10 days and John Nelson, who had been confined on a charge of assault and battery, was discharged. Margaret Cecil, or I can because I Ought," is the title of a well written and interesting work, just received at the Literary Depot of Reel & Callow, successors to J. B. Holmes, Third street. "Jenny Divers, the Female Highwayman," a novel worthy of perusal, has also been received. Accident.—A man in the employment of the Pennsylvania Ralicoad Company, was crushed to death on Sunday morning by the coming to gether of the locomotive and a passenger car while he was attempting to couple them. Police Affairs.-Not much has been done by the police within a few days. Mayor Guthrie is still sick, and Alderman Steel is acting in his stead. Burglary .- The book store of G. G. Eston, in Allegheny city, was broken open on Monday night, but the burglar was heard in time to prevent any thing being obtained. We would invite attention to the sale of superior household furniture, at No. 174 Second street, this morning at 10 o'clock, by P. M. Da-Miner & Co., 32 Smithfield street, hav received Blackwood's Magazine for February, and Thompson's Bank Note and Commer Reporter for March. Mayor's Court .- Only one case was up before the Mayor yesterday morning. Well done for Sunday night Fire. -The slarm of fire which was given las night, about ten o'clock, was false. ame' Express, at the WAVERLEY HOUSE, Diamond Alley.
