WEDNESDAY MORNING MARCH 10 River Intelligence, &c. of the best of our "floating palaces," and Capt. equal to that of the lamented Power. for good management and accommodations.

The River and Weather .- The river was falling yesterday, with about 12 feet water on the Falls The river had receded altogether last evening. The river had received attogether 10 inches. The weather yesterday was extremeble, and heavy rains had fallen du.

The river was rising rapidly yesterday ng for other parts. The business on the Enthusiastic Prohibition Liquor Law Meeting. -At a very large and most enthusiastic meeting of citizens in favor of the adoption by the Legis. lature, of a law totally prohibiting the sale of liquor in Pennsylvania, (except for medicinal purposes,) held on Monday evening, in the Cumberland Presbyterlan Church, (Rev. A. M. Bryan's,) on Sixth street-Rov. D. H. RIDDLE, D. D., was called to the chair. Messrs. Wm. Barker, John M. Kirkpatrick, Daniel Hershman, R. C. Stockton, John Glenn, George A. Berry, Geo. R. White, A. G. M'Candless, and Dr. Johnston. acted as Vice Presidents; and Messra. James K. Morange and James K. Kennedy were appointed Secretaries. The meeting was opened with prayer by the Rev. Dr. Riddle, after which Hon. William B. McClure, chairman of the committee on resolu fions, offered the following:

Resolved, That the safety of the people is the supreme Law.

Resolved, That self defence is not a passive right, but an active and positive obligation en ned upon society for its own protection, pres rvation and respectability.

Resolved. That the earnest action of the citi zens of this Commonwealth, in the cause of Temperance, at this time, is not aggression but Resolved, That the legislation which prevents is wiser than that which punishes, and whe causes are removed, effects will cease. Resolved. That the codes of civilized warfare sanction the capture and destruction of the munitions of war of a public enemy, ia time o Resolved. That experience has proved that the license laws for vending spirituous liquors, scarcely ulleviate, and can never remove the Resolved, That no law, short of absolute pro hibition, will avail; and that for prevention o crime, the preservation of public peace, healthy morals, and prosperity, which lie at the foundation of social existence, the exigencies of society now imperatively demand such a law and none

Resolved, That we approve of what is called the "Maine Liquor Law." We believe the people of this Commonwealth are propared to adopt it; and we do most respectfully and earnestly petition the Legislature of Pennsylvania, now in session, to enact it, or one equally stringent and erto, have been; and forever must be, cruel and defective in this: They lead men into temptation, and then punish them for yielding to it; whereas, a prohibitory law leads us not inte temptation, but delivers us from evil.

His Honor, Judge M'Clure, then made a speech of great power and beauty, pointing out the evils which intemperance entailed upon the community, giving a detailed account of his observations in the Criminal Court, the red calendar of which was filled with crimes resulting directly or indirectly from the use of ardent spirits. The learned Judge concluded a practical address. which made a most profound impression up on all present, by expressing it as his firm and sedemn conviction, that the only manner in which the evils he had pointed out could be obviated, was by the passage of the proposed probibitory liquor law. Col. Wilson M'Candless was called upon for an address, and responded in a most elequent manner, answering all the objections which had been urged against the Maine Law, and proving that it did not recognize the right of any one to search private houses, unless an affidavit bad been previously made that they contained liquor which was kept for sale.

Hon. Walter Forward, at the request of the audience, addressed them in his usual style of fervid and impressive eloquence, in favor of the at 210. proposed law, and pointed out the reasons which in his opinion, imperatively demanded its passage. Of that passage he had no doubt; it might be delayed for a short time, but the force of public opinion would irresistibly impel the Legislature forward, until the friends of temperance achieved an ultimate triumph.

After some appropriate remarks by Mr. J Harrison Parry, the Rev. Dr. Rodgers made a brief address, and the resolutions (as read by Judge McClure) were on motion of Dr. A. G M'Candless, unanimously carried. On motion of Alderman Steel, it was resolved that the proceedings of this meeting be published in the city papers, and that a copy doly authen ticated, be forwarded to Harrisburg. The exercises were closed with prayer by th Rev. Nathaniel West, and the meeting adjourned. D. H. BIDDLE, Ch'n.

J. K. MORANGE, Secretaries.

" Nothing in the Ordinances About That."-Since the new night watch have commenced their duties, the above has become a by word among both its friends and enemies. It originated with the new Captain of the watch, who, perfectly guorant of the duties which attach to his sta ion, and acknowledging no criterion but the Ordinances," is incessantly appealing to them for the correctness of his positions. A few nights ago, a drunken man was taken down, and when he began to expostulate with the Captain about locking him up, was met with a very pointed application of the Ordinances, in the shape of a lecture upon their bearing upon his case. Some boys about the door at once caught the above expression, and it is now a standard

Mayor's Court .- Alderman Steel, yesterday morning, had eight cases before him from the watch house, three of whom he discharged. The young men who were engaged in a row in the Diamond, the night before, were dealt lightly with, as it appeared that the watchmen had not secured the real disturbers of the case, but a party who were acting simply on the de-

The weather yesterday was of that changeful kind peculiar to March. For a few moments we would have calm sunshine, and no wind; and then before you were aware of the change, clouds and dampness would seem to enelope the whole city. The day was quite pleasant, however, throughout, and business was comparatively brisk

Police Matters.—The Police of our city have not had much to do for a day or two past. There

DB. VALERTINE had another full house last evening, and the audience left the Hall highly pleased with the performance. Not the least DAILY REVIEW OF THE MARKETS attractive portion of the entertainment was the sweet songs of Mr. Munphy. "My Mother Dear," and "Molly Bawn," were given with The Cinclonati, Capt. Birmingham, leaves feeling that few but Murphy can sing them o-day at 11 o'clock, for Cincinnati. She is one with, and his "Groves of Blarney," we though Birmingham is as celebrated for his urbanity of We are gratified to announce that Dr. Valenmanners, and the peculiar taste he has for mak- tine will prolong his stay one evening more, and ing passengers feel comfortable; as his boat is that another entertainment will be given this evening, which will positively be his last performance in this city.

The "Ladies' Association of the Friends of Hungary," will meet at the German Church, Sixth and Smithfield streets, this afternoon, at ng the day, and it was raining quite hard last 21 o'clook. It is hoped that there will be avery large attendance,—as every lady who has joined the present Association, will be entitled to The river was rising rapidly yesterday ifternoon. It had reached the houses on " Rat receive one of the One Dollar Hungarian Notes; Row" at dusk; and the denizons of the row were and all who may hereafter join will also receive one. Mrs. Lynde Eliot, who has been appointed landing all day, was uncommonly lively, and the boats had plenty to do.—Cincinnati Commer by Gov. Kossuth one of his Agents, will furnish o the members of this, or any similar Associaion, such amount of these notes as may be ecessary. Distinguished Arrival .- Senator Brooks, the nember elect from Mississippi to fill the unexpired term of Gen. Foote, arrived in this city yesterday morning, on board the steamer Cincinnati. He is now en route for Washington. Opening of the Canal. The most positive as surances are given that the water will be let into the Canal on Saturday next. As soon as this is done, freights, which have began to get scarce, will be more plenty for our steambest man. This morning at 10 o'clock, at the dwelling house, No. 183 Grant street, will be sold a large assortment of excellent Furniture, &c., by P. M. Davis, Auctioneer.

Dear Sir's I delayed answering the receipt of your preparation, until I had an or-paranity of wilmessing its effects in my own family, or in the families of my thread. This I have now done with a high degree of estimation, in cases both of adults said children. I have found it, as its ingredients show, a powerful ramedy for coldes and coughs and pulmonary diseases.

The following was one of the worst of cases which the physicians and friends thought (doe locarable consumption :—

which the physicians and friends thought id be incurable consumption.—

Chuster, Ps.: Aug. 22, 1840.

J. C. Ayer.—Sir: I was taken with a terrible cough brought on by a cold, in the beginning of last Fabruary, and was conlined to my bed more than two months—Coughing incessantly night and day, I become ghastly and pale, my oyes were sunken and glassy, and my breath very short. Indeed, I was rapidly failing, and in such distress for breath that but like hone of my recovery could be entermined. While in this shumion, a friend of mine, (the Rev. John Keller, of the Methr distributed) brought me a bottle of your Churar Partala, which I tried more to grallly him, than from any expectation of obtaining relief. Its good effect induced me to coultuse its use, and I soon found my licality much improved—Sow in three months, I am well and strong, and can actibute my cure only to your great medicine.

With the deepest gratifiede, yours, Me.
