It is well known to our readers that the Su preme Pontiff at Rome has offered, through Col. Case our minister at that place, a Stone from the ruins of the Temple of Peace, as a gift LECKY HARPER...... to the Washington Monument now being erected at the National Capitol. This act which is an unbought and unsolicited testimonial from a foreign ruler to the character and services of our wed and venerated Washington, and which had been so looked upon by the people, has been seized upon by a small portion of our citizens for the purpose of calling public meetings, and protesting against what they in their wisdom are pleased to call foreign interference in the doare pleased to call foreign interference in the doare pleased to call foreign interference in the doare pleased to call foreign interference in the doare. mrs piensed to call foreign interference in the do-mestic affeirs of our country. This is but a spark of that expiring flame which for a time lit up our skies with its baleful effects, and threatened to introduce into our happy land the same wild spirit of intolerance and faunticism that has proved the downfull of every people who have heen cursed with its development. Though born-on our soil, Washington belongs to the whole on our soil, Washington belongs to the whole human race, who have been benefitted by his services, and it is peculiarly appropriate that a monument intended to commemorate his glo-rious deeds, and keep alive in the memories and hearle of all ages a proper regard for his example, should be built not by one untion, but by the united and spentaneous action of the whole world. We look upon this gift as a convincing proof that at last the eyes of the old world are opening to a true and proper estimate of the man of the American Revolution; the one who man or the infant steps of the young Republic as guided the infant steps of the young Republic as did Moses of old the children of Israel, safe through the dangers that beset her, and in this. open and emphatic manner are doing justice to Washington and his mission of world-wide eman-This is the way in which it is present ed to the minds of men whose mental and moral vision is not suffering a obliquity that deprives them of all the usual means of judgment, and sets them adrift upon the sea of passion and prejudice without a radder or compass to guide them. No interference is intended, and if there was, how is the matter to be accomplished by rtal founder of our contributed by the pontiff at Rome, or any other otentate of Europe, to the Washington monu-ent make the American people love his memory less, or cling with weakened devotion to the great principles of government which he estab-lished? Is will not be pretended that such will be the result except by those who are engaged in this movement, and who for the sake of keer ing up the fast-dying cause out of which they coin their daily bread, would insult the memory of Washington, by pushing their bold notions of religious intolerance and bigotry over the very grave of the man who, were he alive, would spurn with loathing and contempt the doc. trines and the men who promulgate them.

THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER. This newspaper, which was once so highly prized by readers of all parties, for the dignity of its sentiment, and the character It hore for honesty of purpose, truthfulness, and patriotsm, has of late fallen from its high estate, and the reader will now seek in vain throughout its broad columns for its old characteristics. The spirit that once animated it has fled, and it now contains very little but peevish senility, disingenuous logic, and the evidence of a disposition to traduce, and slander, and villify the friends of human liberty, while, at the same time, it has abundance of fair words and apologies for the tyrants who are endeavoring to crush to the earth principles which should be dear to every American heart: We can only account for the shameful position of the National Intelligencer, by supposing that it has been seduced by the auchination of Austro-Russian diplomacy, which they are kept open on an average, about nine s undermining the virtue of so many of our pubic men and journals.
