Great Railroad Celebration. The opening of the Ohio and Penusylvania Railroad, to Massillon, was celebrated by the Company, the inhabitants of the different towns and villages on the line, and by the good people of Massillon, on Thursday and Friday, in a manner so enthusiastic, that no one who was an eye itness will soon forget the celebration.

The invited guests, numbering over one hundred, left the Depot, in Allegheny, on Thursday time to Alliance, from whence the opening of the road commenced. There, five cars, headed by the iron horse Massillon, received the excursionists. The Locomotive was decorated in the most handsome manner, with flags and banners. Railroad Accident.—Another horrible acciden occurred on the Ohio and Pennsylvania railrood. the peace and welfare of the city. on Thursday evening. The freight train was detained at New Brighton beyond its usual hour, and so long that the express train left before it. When near Freedom, the express train ran over a horse, by which the locomotive, and one passenger car were thrown off the track. The freight train was at so short a distance in the rear, that it was found impossible to prevent the ing in this city from the west. We noticed a collision which ensued, and by which Mr. RICHARD POTTER, of Allegheny city, was in- wharf yesterday, just landed from some of the stantly killed.
