of a very inclement winter. On motion, it was resolved, that the proceedings of the meeting be published in the papers and Allegheny.

The New Steamer Allegheny .- This boat made her trial trip on Saturday last, and fully equalled the expectations of her owners. Every part of her machinery worked to the entire estisfaction of the officers. Below will be found a table of her dimensions :--.300 feet: Length,... Breadth of beam,.

Entire breadth, 58
Depth of hold, 7 The Allegheny, reflects honor not only on her builders, and the various artizans employed in getting her ready for the spring trade, but will serve as a sample of the manner in which Pittsburgh mechanics do their work. Her machinery is on the most modern plan, and the cabin is furnished with every thing that will conduce to the comfort and acommodation of passengers. The Allegheny is to take the place of the Hibernia No. 2, in the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati line of Packets, and will leave to-morrow, for the Queen City, under the command of Captain CHARLES BATCHELOR, formerly of the Hibernia.

Arrest of a Robber .- Officer Hague arrested man named Summers, at the Exchange Hotel, on Friday evening last, on a charge of robbery .-Hereceived information of the robbery of $952, by a messenger of Lockwood's Express, who brought, at the time of the robbery, upwards of $100,000 to this city. Summers had eluded the vigilance of the Ohio officers, and came to this city in the excursion cars, from Massillon, on Friday evening last, and took lodgings at the Exchange Hotel, where Hague nabbed the gentleman. Summers confessed the charge, and handed over $400, the rest he had disbursed for his own use. He was committed to prison. Floating Circus .- Mr. Spaulding, well known as the manager of several circus companies, has been engaged for some time in Cincinnati, in the construction of an immense floating amphithenter, which is to be towed by steamboat to the several towns and cities along the rivers for the purpose of exhibiting.

Our citizens will have an opportunity of witnessing the performance in this floating circus, in the course of a few weeks. From this city inst. it will float down the river, and no doubt gather a golden harvest for the enterprising manager .

Whig Review. - The March number of this able monthly is on our table. Though holding different views from it in matters of national policy, we cannot refrain from speaking in the highest terms of its contents. The Literary matter is of the first order, and the Political, dignified and well written. This number contains a portrait of the Hon. Wm. A. Graham, Secretary of War, and among its varied literary contents, we see several American subjects, well treated by native authors.

Pennsylvania Farm Journal.—We have received from the publisher, Mr. A. M. SPARGEER, of Harrisburg, the March number of this valuable agricultural publication. This number closes the first volume, and we would take this opportunity of recommending it to the attention of the Parmers in this part of the State. It is edited by S. S. Haldeman.

Transplanting .- Our market is well supplied with all kinds of fruit trees, shrubbery, &c., suitable for transplanting, and every taste can be suited by the proprietors of our nurseries. Those who have grounds to improve, have now mostly compelled to lay by at night, and are thus detained beyond their regular time. The Winchester and Buckeye State, did not reach our wharf, until noon on Saturday, in consequence

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS. BY THE ORRILLY LINE. XXXII CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION.

Washington, March 18.
The Senate was not in session to day. House — Mr. Polk, of Tennessee, rose to a privilege question, and said that he was gratified to state that the recent unfortunate difficulties between Mesers. Brown and Wilcox, Represen-tatives from Mississippl, had been adjusted in a manner highly creditable to both parties; and that they now occupied the same relations o friendship which existed between them before. The House then went into committee of the whole on the resolution authorizing a continuation of the work on the wings of the Capitol. Mr. Wilcox resumed his reply to Mr. Brown He regretted to say any thing further; but he would not fold his arms quietly and permit that speech to go unanswered. His colleague had said that there was no party in Mississippi, in favor of disunion or secessi on. He desired no further collision or conflict with his colleague; Mr. Brown says there was no such party in Mississippi, he falsifies history. He then went
