There was a good lesson to be obtained from this, for such is the law of Progress.

The Orchestra .- Visiting the Theatre on Monday night, we were pleased to see the excellent leader of former days, our friend Zitterbard, again occupying that important post; and, without intending in any manner to disparage others, we can say with safety that we have never heard present Orchestra. The members are all accomplished musicians, and are, withal, gentlemen of refined manners and well educated. We think that few men can be found anywhere who would give higher satisfaction to private balls and select parties, than Mr. Vogel, the second violinist, and Mr. F. Olnhausen, the admirable performer on the Cornet and French Horn. Both these gentlemen may be occasionally engaged for such service, and we take pleasure in recommending them to those who may wish to have real music as a part of a social entertainment.

Fire. -A fire occurred in a little frame building on the corner of Prospect and Elm streets on Monday night, about 10 o'clock. It appears that the women who occupied the building as a dwelling, was in the habit of taking potations abstraction, from the cares and toils of a busy world, induced by her drink, she accidently set her bed on fire. The promptness of our firemen prevented any considerable injury to other valu-

Departure of the Allegheny .- A large crowd assembled on the wharf vesterday morning to witness the departure of this truly magnificent boat. As she turned slowly and majestically around and fired her cannon, the spectators could hardly repress a shout of admiration at her huge but ymmetrical dimensions. She has a fine stage of water to make her first regular trip, and had a larrge number of passengers.

Counterfeiter Arrested .- Officer Dougherty arrested a man named James Shannon on a charge of passing counterfeit money at a Clothing store on Liberty, street, Upon examination, the man was found to have a large quantity of the new counterfeit fives on the Farmer's and Drovers Bank of Waynesburg, but he was discharged by redeeming the money. The counterfeit bills are now in the possession of the Police, and are extremely well executed.

Complimentary Supper. The Supper at Rev. Passavant's Infirmary, came off last night, to the entire satisfaction of all persons present. A number of speeches were made, expressive of the high regard of the guests both for the prime mover of this eminently beneficial institution, and for the institution itself. The best feeling prevailed throughout the whole evening.

The Lecture to-night, by Bishop O'Connor in Masonic Hall, judging from the importance of the subject and the character and ability of the lecturer, must be one of thrilling interest. We sincerely hope that our charitable and thinkng citizens will turn out in great numbers, not only from this consideration, but because the fands are to be employed in so holy and worthy Fight.-A bloody fight occurred on board the teamer Allegheny, a little while before she started for the Queen City, between a passenger and a book pedler. Both combatants received evere cuts about the head and face, before they could be separated. The fraces originated in ome remarks made by the passenger derogatory to the books offered for sale by the podlar.

Things about the Canal basin are begin ing to assume their wonted appearance, since the water reached this division. As we predicted, boats were started out yesterday morning, and trade will soon be actively commenced on this important portion of our State improve onis a face with a great harman Public Supper .- The "Patriotic Daughters of America" design having a public supper at Latayette Hall this evening. Tickets admitting a entleman and lady can be procured at the bookstore of Mr. Loomls, on Wood street.

Effects of the Gate.-We yesterday heard of strong wind which was blowing all day on Mone day. A small station house en the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad at Sewicklyville, was

Market House.-At the meeting of the subcribers of the stock to the new Market House, eld in Philo Hall, on Monday evening, the plan draughted by Mr. Moeser was adopted, and is now ready for the consideration of the Coun-

Down .- Owing to the fact that the telegraph severe gale of Monday, we are unable to lay say tolegraphic news before our renders this morning. We think they will be in working order in time for to-morrow's paper.

Held to Bail.-Alderman Major, yesterday, held to bail for appearance at Court, a lady, named Mrs. Brown, in the sum of $200, for assault and battery, upon Mrs. Ballard.

Discharged .- James Chapman, who was charged with robbing the mail in September last, was declared not guilty in the United States Dis-received from an authentic source, the follow. ing account of the recent attempt at robbing the DAILY REVIEW OF THE MARKETS store of John Stiles & Co., in Rochester: The grocery store belonging to John Steele & Co was entered on Sunday night last by some persons, by taking down the stove pipe chimney days, to catch a good local item—one, we mean, (after having unsuccessfully tried the doors and windows.) They searched in vain for money. and then commenced operations on an iron safe

Passing up Hand street, we saw a great tremendous, tearing the safe into a hundred crowd near Market street-men, women, boys pieces; the door of the safe was thrown with and girls, black and white-nil seemed to be such force as to pass entirely through the cellcondering, and all were gazing. The explosion was heard nearly a mile, but nobody thought of the blowing up of a safe. Messrs. I. Stiles & Co.'s loss will be about $300. Mr. W. L. Dickinson, one of the firm, avails himself of the opportunity to say to any person or persons who wish to rob him of his money (as the firm keeps none in the store) to call of him at any place, when he will be happy to meet them, and settle the matter without further notice, and he further desires that no one who is in the habit of stealing will consider himself slighted by this invitation, but call up to the Captain's office and settle.

The Druids.—This band of unique musicians again delighted an immense audience at Lafayette more delightful music than is performed by the Hall, last night. We learn, with much regret, that they leave to-day, as they have certainly afforded an uncommon source of amusement and pleasure to our citizens. We most cheerfully recommend them to the favorable consideration of the citizens of any place they may visit, as agreeable and clever gentlemen, and most excellent performers on their singular instruments. We have been informed that the roo will be put on St. Paul's Cathedral by the first of September. Considering the immense amount of work to be done, we think that if the contractors succeed so well, they will have accomplished a wonder. Arrivals.—The arrivals at all of our hotels, yesterday, were very large, and there was a yesterday, were very large, and there was a large number of western imigrants passing Quarter Sessions of the Court of General To the city, who did not stone at any of the brough the city, who did not stop at any of t

CRESTER, Pa., Aug. 22, 1946.

J. C. Ayer,—Sir: I was taken with a terrible cough brought on by a coid, in the beginning of last February, and was contined to my bed more than two mouths—Ceughing incessately night and day, I became ghastly and pale, my eyes, were sucken and glassy, and my breath very short. Indeed, I was rapidly falling, and in such distress for breath, that but little hope of my recovery could be entertained. While in this situation, a friend of mine, (the Rev. John Keller, of the Metth dist church) brought me a bottle of your Chrakt Percast, which tried more to gratify him, then from any expectation of obtaining relief. Its good effect induced me to continuit is use, and I soon found my health much improved. Now in three months, I am well and strong, and can attribute my cure only to your great medicine, which we have been been and to be strong and can attribute my cure only to your great medicine, and by James C.
