Death of Judge M Millan -- We were compa led to omit yesterday, the proceedings of the lifferent courts of this county on Monday, o he occasion of the death of the Hon. T. L. M'MILLAN, both the District Court and the Court of Quarter Sessions adjourned in the morn ing. Appropriate remarks were made by the Hon. Wm. B. M'Clure, one of the Judges, and by Messrs. Flanegin, Black and Darragh, in the Jourt of Quarter Sessions; and in the District Court, James Callan, Esq., announced the death of Judge M'Millan, in fitting terms, and the Hor Walter Forward, bore testimony to the many virtues of the deceased. After these proceeds ings both Courts adjourned until Wednesday. The members of the bar held a meeting or Monday afternoon, in the room of the Court of Quarter Sessions to take action in regard to the death of Judge M'Millan. The meeting was organized by calling James S. Craft, Esq., to the chair, and Mr. Darragh, was appointed Sec-The Chairman on taking his seat, announce In appropriate terms the nature of the melancholy duty which they had assembled to fufill. By order of the Board of Health.

A. M. POLLOCK.

Physician to the Board of Healt Mr. Darragh presented a series of resolutions which he prefaced by a few remarks explanatory of the feelings with which he, in common with all the members of the Bar, viewed this afflicting dispensation of Providence. The resolutions bore testimony to the character of the deceased, and the manner in which he discharged his duties, both as a man and a public officer; and expressed their sincere condolence to the family of the deceased for the loss they have sustained. It was also resolved, that the members of the bar would attend the funeral of the deceased, as a mark of respect to his memory. A committee was appointed to have the propeedings of the meeting entered on the records of the courts of this county. After which, the meeting adjourned. The Lecture to-night .- The Lecture of Bisho O'Connor will be delivered this evening, at Ma sonic Hall. The subject chosen by the Reverend gentleman is a "Vindication of his Lecture of March 17th, on 'The Influence of Catholicity on our Civil Institutions." The gentleman's high reputation for scholas tic learning, and his eloquence, will insure a good attendance at the hall to-night. Added to this, the lecture is designed for the benefit of one of the most benevolent institutions in our midstthe St. Paul's Orphan Asylum. As the course of lectures delivered by the several learned gentlemen in this city, during the past month, has excited a great deal of interest, the attention of the public will not lag on account of the reverend gentleman again taking the stand.
