will be all made right in a day or two.

We refer our mercantile friends to the full and interesting report of the Baltimore Market for the past week, which will be found in our columns to-day. We think this will be of more value to most of our readers than a more skeleton report by telegraph.

H. M. Rowlerr, Esq.—This gentleman who has been in our city for a few days past, will shortly leave for the castern citles. His destination is California, where he goes as a Commercial Collector, and judging from the amount of business entrusted to him by those who know him well, we have no doubt that his mission will be a successful one, not only for himself, but his clients-at least, we hope so.

CLEVELAND AND PITTSBURGH RAILROAD.

We had the pleasure of meeting yesterday with CYRUS PRENTISS, Esq., the very efficient Presidont of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad, at the Monongalicla House. a few remarks we made some weeks since or, the singular course it has pursued of late. We intended nothing unkind towards the Union in our remarks, but merely recorded the sentiments that are uttered by all who read its columns—that it "is fast verging to the position of a mere partizan journal." We have said so, and we reiters to the remark.

It would be folly for the present editors of the Union to attempt the labor of convincing the pu bname, it was the great central organ of the elemocracy; unyielding in its devotion to the pitintowards the distinguished Statesmen who advocated and defended its principles. But, latterly there has been a lamentable falling off in its high independence, and now, it appears to be some-

The Union should not have noticed our article at all, as it appears to think itself too high to stoop, or when it did "condescend," it should have spoken ingeniously. We, of course, can have no hard feelings towards the Union. RAIN ON THE ROOF When the humid showers gather, Over all the starry sphere, And the melancholy darkness Gently weeps in spiny tears This a joy to press the pillow

Of a cottage chamber bed, And to listen to the patter Of the seft rain overhead. Every tinkle on the shingles.

Has an echo in the heart,
And a thousand dreary fancies.
Into busy being start;
And a thousand recollections
Weave their bright hues into woof,
As I listen to the patter
Of the soft rain on the roof. There in fancy comes my mother. As she used to, years ugone,
To survey the infant sleepers
Ere she left them till the dawn:

can see her bending o'er me, As I listen to the strain Which is played upon the sningles By the patter of the rain. Then my little seraph eister, Mith her wings and waving hair,
And her hright eyed cherub brother;
A serene angelic pair;
Glide around my wakeful pillow
With their praise or mild reproof,
As I listen to the murmur
Of the soft rain on the roof.

And another comes to thrill me
With her eyes delicious blue;
I forget, us gaping on her,
That her heart was all unitue;
I temember that I loyed her
As I ne'er may love again,
And my heart's quick bulses wibrato
To the pat er of the rain. There is usught in art's bravuras That can work with such a spell, in the spirit's pure deep fountains. Whence the holy pustions swell, As that melody of nature—
That subduced subduing strain. Which is played upon the shingles. By the patter of the rain.

THE undersigned take this method of informing their friends, and the public generally, that they have been greatly disappointed in the issue of the "Daily Union," in consequence of a failure in Ruiladelphia to ship the types necessary for its publication. The breach that has seen made in the Canal will now enuse farther delay; but we do not anticipate a delay of more than a week. The "Daily Union" will certainly appear daving the next two weeks, under very flattering auspices; or which we shall day inform the public. ID Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Cough Syrup.
IN DISEASES OF THE LUNGS AND RESPIRATORY ORGANS—THE LUNGS, THE PROMOBILA AND THE LANGE are the organs through which Respiration is earled ou. If obstructions occur in the skin, in the kidness, or in any of the organs alove named, from cold or any other cause, the other organs are over-taxed in their functions, and you have disease. Irritation or infimumation sets in, which can only be relieved by taking a proper remedy, one that will restore each organ to the duty proper to it. a proper remedy, one that will restore each organ to the duly proper to it comes—when Consumption of the Lungs—Symputoms—When Consumption commences its work upon the Lungs, in its assual form, the first symptom is a Cough As the discuse advances the Cough becomes much more frequent, and is attended with the expectoration of matter, which is sometimes colorless, but at colors, assumes a yellowish or greenish hue, and will often be found mixed with streaks of blood. After the Cough has continued for a time, the patient will experience some difficulty in breathing, accompanied, perhaps, with a pain in the chest, and frequently, in one or both sides. The patient will be subject to a hectic lever and alternate flushes of heat, frequent cold chills, and often with copious night sweats.

Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup is prepared for the sole purpose of benefitting anch cases, and contains ingredients which will allay and soothe irritation, dissolve the increased secretion of mucoas which collects in the Bronchial tubes, and removes any obstraction from the Respiratory organs, and restores them to a healthful action. Hence, it is applicable to all cases of Coughs, Wheezing, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Laryngitis and any other palmonsry disease, depending on or arising from obstruction. It is sweet and pleasant to take, and may be given with perfect safety to the most tender infant. "Try it, and you will not be disappointed."

Those threatored with Consumption, should bear in mind that 'Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry 's the remedy that has performed cures of Consumption that mind that "Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry" is the remedy that has performed cures of Consumption that were thought almost miraculous cures, which have astonished the medical world, and brought the bloom of health to many a pallid cheek, and joy and gladness to many a despairing bosom.
