The Water Works .- As will be seen by the following notice, our citizens will have to be placed on a short allowance of water for a few days .-This is rendered necessary, until the machinery can be got to work. We visited the works yesterday afternoon, and found the water rapidly subsiding around the works, while in the interior, a pump forced by steam, was throwing the water out at the rate of six inches per hour.

Notice to the Citizens of Pittsburgh. NOTICE is hereby given, that in consequence of it great flood of water incapacitating the machine of the Water Works, the citizens can only be afforded supply of water commencing to day between the hours of 5 and 8 o'clock, A. M., and 4 and 5 o'clock, P. M. vill be given as soon as possible

JAMFS NELSON;

Death of Judge Coulter.-It will be seen, by eference to our telegraphic column, that the that he went from the ball room into a drinking Hon. RICHARD COULTER died at his residence in room, above the stairs, where he fell into a deensburg, at 11 o'clock on Tuesday evening. Mr. Coulten was elected one of the Judges of of the drinking room into the ball room below the Supreme Court, at the last election, a station which he had ably filled for some years before. He was well known in this city, and our citizens will regret his death.

The Rivers.-The water was falling all day yesterday very fast, and it is now brought down to an ordinary high water stage. In Allegheny city, the water is rapidly clear ing away from the streets. Robinson street above Federal, and a great part of it below, we clear of water yesterday evening.

In the lower part of Allegheny, several houses are in a very precarious condition. Some frame dwellings have floated entirely off their foundations. We noticed, among other things, a canal boat lying across Craig street, where it had killed Saunders. floated during the flood: the way in which it lies, renders the street impassable for vehicles. In Duquesne Borough, the water was two feet deep in the engine house of the Allegheny Water Works. Hays' Tannery was flooded on the first floor. The flood undermined the large ice house of Mr. Hartley, and the wall is rent in several places-the ice is greatly damaged. The wooden bridge, leading from Duquesne Borough to the court adjourned until this morning.

Herr's Island, is partly off the stone abutments. and is considered in a dangerous condition. In this city, the water is also fast receding from the streets at the noint, and also in the streets in the Fifth and Ninth Wards. Mapy of the foundries and manufacturing establish | passed: ments under water on Tuesday, were busily engaged in clearing their premises yesterday. There were twenty three feet of water in the feet from the highest point of the flood. Miss Hayes' Concert. - The concert of Miss Catharine Hayes, on Tuesday evening, was attended by a very large audience. The programme consisted of a good selection of the choicest pie ces of vocal music, that can be found. Miss air from Handel's Messich, "I know that my she was greeted with the most rapturous applause; in the first part of the concert, she also off."

Sang the celebrated aris of Casta Diva. But in the sweet ballad of "Home, Sweet Home," Miss the sweet ballad of "Home, Sweet Home," Miss provements going on in Fifth street, between the Tuscan and Spanish ports.

Hayes was peculiarly touching; it was loudly encored, and the fair songstress responded by singing the "Irish Emigrants Lament." To say that this was beautiful would convey no idea of the performances, but the sweetness of her voice, and the plaintive utterance of the Lament, was the content of the concert, with states as a fair furious date of the Lament, was the performances, but the sweetness of her voice, and the plaintive utterance of the Lament, was the content of the concert, she also of the concert, she also of the concert, she also of the Lament, was the content of the Lament of the most enchanting. Theatre.-A very interesting and amusing bill is offered to-night. Mr. and Mrs. Barney Williams still continue to draw crowded houses, notwithstanding the disagreeable weather we have had for the past week. This evening they appear in the beautiful drama of the Robber's Wife and the ams. Express, at the WAVERLEY HOUSE Irish Lion. To-morrow evening, a complimentary benefit will be tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Barney Williams, on which occasion four excellent pieces will be presented.

Serious Assault .- A man named George M'Intosh was committed to iail, on Tuesday, by Mayor Fleming, of Allegheny City, charged on onth of Abraham Dickinson, with assault and battery with intent to kill. The dispute took place in Allegheny City, opposite the post office, cn. Monday afternoon. Mr. Dickinson's jaw was fractured, and his face horribly mutilated.

County Jail.—There were seven persons committed to this institution, yesterday, by Mayor Guthrie, for drunkenness and vagrancy. BALTIMORE, April 21.
The Whig Congressional Caucus re-assemble in the Senate Chamber to-night at eight o'clock. Judge Mangum presided. The attendance was rather thin, a number of Southern members, and some of Mr. Webster's friends being absent. Mr. Marshall, of Ky., offered some original Whig Caucus resolutions, to which Mr. Stanley objected, as out of order. The Chairman sustained the objection, after a discussion principally by Messrs. Marshall and Stanley. The Chair was sustained. vas sustained—yeas 46, nays 18.

Mr. Marshall said, that as the Chair had decided the Compromise principles of the Whig Administration to be out of order, this was no place for Whigs to remain, and he then withdrew. The negative votes against the decision were given by Southern men except Stanley, Moorhead, Callom and two Kentuckians. Among the affirmatives, were Fowler, Wade, Campbell, Sackett, Schoolcraft and others, Mr. Gentry, with much feeling, said he would nake one more effort to save the unity of the Whig party, and offered a resolution in substance that in fixing the time and place, the Whigs did not commit themselves unless the Compromises were final. A long debate arose, in which Messrs. Outlaw, Campbell, Brooke, of Miss., Stro-ther, Moore, of La., Ewing, Cabell, and Clingnan participated. Mr. Outlaw wished it to be understood that if he compromise resolutions were to be thrust out f the Whig Caucus, it was thrusting him and the whigs whom he represented out, and he then ithdraw.

Mr. Moore, of La., said that such action roled the southern whigs out of caucus, and then he and his colleague, Laundry, withdrew. Mr. Brooke, of Miss., said he would like to know, before he went to the whig National Conention, what company he would keep, and he left.
Mr. Strothers said the whigs of Virginia had, n substance, instructed him to leave the caucus f the compromise was thrown out.

Mr. Cabell said that the previous decision of the chair had caused many southern whigs to be absent to-night; but he and others had came, noping the roversal of such decision. The con-firmation would leave the caucus with only northern men, and but eight or ten southern whigs.
Mr. Clingman, after some few remarks, left.
Also, Mr. Williams, of Tenn.
Mr. Gentry made some indignant remarks.
From Tennessee there was in the Chamber but lessrs. Cullom and Jones. The greatest excite ment was created at this secession, and there reained from the south only part of North Carolina, Kentucky and Tennessee. All the other southern states were wholly unrepresented; in-deed, it had become almost exclusively a northrn caucus. Mr. Moorhead, of N. C., said he staid behind only because he hoped the whig convention would adopt the compromise, and it was certain that North Carolina would vote only the known comromise. Mr. Dickey endorsed his colleague to the fallest extent.

Mr. Cullom said no man could hope to carry Tennessee unless he was for the compromise.
On motion of Mr. Sackett the time and place was fixed. Upon a division between Baltimore and Pittsburgh, the former received 31 votes, and the latter 18, showing but 49 present.

After the Southern men left, Mr. Stanley defined his position at length. Unless, said he, the Whig party stood upon the compromise, no candidate could receive the Southern vote: TICH, plain and ombroidered Parasols. [april] Diarrheas, diminished fe-ver, cough and morning sweats, great and increasing THIRD STAGE. Subercular Consumption, in Yellow Wrappers.

TO THE AFFLICTED—The appearance in inceboules of NUTALL'S SYRIACUM is a new or ain medicine, from its novely and direct opposition to the old absurd and inconsistent ONE BOTTLE SYSTEM; absurd and inconsistent ONE BOTTLE SYSTEM, while its success, prepared in this manner, (each boutle ontsining a different preparation), in curing the different stages which characterize Consumption, has established the welcome truth of the Curability of swery status of Fulmonary Consumption.

Physicians approve of it because it is based upon corect. The siological and Tathological principles. The public approve of it, because it is Common Sense, and because they know from sad experience that one preparation will not care the three stages of Cansumption. The suffering disappointed and discouraged invalid approves of it, because its principles hold out a reasonable Lope, and when he uses Natall's Syrlacum, his hopes are realized.

Zope, and when he uses Natall's Syriacum, his hopes are realized.

If he is in the first stage of Consumption, and uses the first bottle, his expectoration, difficult and paintal, he comes free and casy; his cough soon gots well; the soreness, tickling their shroat, inflammation, pain in his breast, side, kind, hack; joints and limbs are removed. If he is in the second stage and uses the second bottle his favor teaves had; his disturbed slambers become sweet and retreahing; his night sweats wanish; his expectoration copious and bloody, assumes a healthy appearance, and at length disappears; his bowels become requiar, his appetite, rourns; the final in his clock disappears; the burning heat in he palms of his hands and soles of his feet are felt no longer; his cough now ceases; he recovers and is well.

If he is in the third stope, and uses the third bottle, his bitarhoat gradually ceases; his weak bowels become Diarrhou gradually ceases; his weak lowels become strong; his cough and there bad symptoms disappear; feeble digestion liceoures strong and vigorous; his stomach recovers its proper tone, and creates new, rich and nourishing blood; his strength returns; his wasted body is clothed with flesh; this LIPE IS SAVED; and he is second to licely the strength of the strong the country of the strong the

DR. H. B. MYERS: EXTRACT,
Dandelion, Wild Cherry and Sarsoparilla.

THIS valuable medicinal preparation differs entirely from any simple
"extract of Sarsaparalia" or common parifying medicine. It is a compound of many of MOST CLEANNSING MEDICINES, with others NSING MEDICINES, with others acting directly on the Kidneys, or having immediate reference to the relative and continued healthy operation of some internal organs. It contains articles which onter into no other preparation in existence, and in other preparation in existênce, and IT IS UNRIVALLED.

In purifying and refreshing effects, by any medicine in the world. It is put up IN LARGE DOTTLES, is yory pleasant to the taste, and is more concentrated, STRONGER, BETTER AND CHEAPER, than any other in the market. Persons who have taken "Sarsaparilla" by the gallon, without relief, have been radically cared by using two or three bottles. This is the only Compound in which Dandelion, Wild Cherry and Sarsaparilla are so prepared to after the peculiar virtues of each, in combination with pure extracts of other healing atticles, in a highly concentrated state. Its ingredients are PURELLY VEGETABLE, and are such roots and barks as are found, though chiefly affecting certain parts, in their general tendency, to produce the most cleaneing and healing effects.
