DOINGS OF WHIGGERY.

late Whig District Conventions in that State, so for as heard from, have selected delegates to the National Covention, favorable to the nomination of Gen. Scorr to the Presidency. It therefore appears that the Whigs of the three great States of the Union, New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio, are committed for Scott. Recent advices from Virginia inform us that the Whigs of that State, in their Convention which assembled at Richmond on the 16th ipst., unanimously adopted resolutions, amidst great enthusiasm, in favor of the seried, that the Whigs of the South will not, dence; and the vast amount of means yet ununder any circumstances, support a candidate for the Presidency, who refuses to come out flatfooted in favor of the Compromise measures .-This determination places Gen. they are greater slaves than the poor Africans who work on their plantations. - Since writing the foregoing, the proceedings of the Whig Congressional Caucus at Washington, have reached us. And a pretty kettle of fish they are truly! After reading these proceedings no one can longer doubt that the Whig party is broken into pieces, rent asunder, and cut up into factions! The Northern Whig members of Congress unceremonlously kicked the Compremise resolutions out of the Caucus, which was a direct and palpable insult to the Southern whigs present; and the latter, as high-minded men, who knew their rights and were willing to maintain them, at once withdrew, leaving the agitators and fanatics "alone in their glory." We have applauded him for his prompt decision in matters of this kind, and congratulated the people on their good fortune in having an Executive possessed of sufficient firmness to repel the encrosching spirit of corporate out danger: public. But in one of his vetoes we think, he has made a mistake. We refer to the Commercial Bank of Pittsburgh. In rejecting this bill, we are apprehensive that he has done what but few of the people of Pittsburgh will approve. It is well known that we are no Bank advocates, and have never favored them or the reckless principles on which many of them have been conducted. The basis of the system appears to everybody to be wrong, but with all the tinkering that has been pursued, it appears that the evil cannot be removed. However, some little good has come out of the long discussions on the subject. Many of the "rottens" have passed away never to be resumed, and the principle has become a

OF THE LUNGS AND RESPIRA TORY ORGANS—THE LUNGS, THE BROKETIA, AND THE LANYS—are the organs through which Respiration is carried on. If obstructions occur in the akin, in the carried on ir obstractions occur in the skift, in the kidneys, or in any of the organs above named, from cold or any other cause, the other organs are over-taxed in their fonctions, and you have disease. Irritation or inflammation sets in, which can only be relieved by taking a proper remedy, one that with restore each organ to the duty proper to it.

Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup is, prepared for the sole. Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup is, prepared for the sole purpose of benefitting such cases, and contains suggestions which will aliay and southe irritation, dissolve the increased secretion of mucous which collects in the Brouchiaj tubes, and removes any obstruction from the Respiratory organs, and restores them to a healthful action. Hence, it is applicable to all cases of Conghs, Wheezing, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Laryngitta and any other pulmonny disease, depending, on or arising from obstruction. It is sweet and pleasant to take, and may be given with perfect safety to the most tender furtant. Try it, and you will not be disappointed."

oms.... When Consumption commences its work upon the Lungs, in its quast form, the first symptom is a lough: As the disease advances, the Cough becomes such more frequent; and is attended with the expecto-ation of matter, which is sometimes coloriers, but, in ration of muter, which is sometimes coloriers, but at others, assumes a yellowish or greenish hue, and will often be found mixed with streaks of blood. After the Cough has cominued for a time, the patient will experience some difficulty in breathing, accompanied, perhaps, with a pain in the ckeet, and frequently, in one or both sides. The patient will be subject to a heatic tever, and alternate flushes of heat, frequent cold chills, and often with copious night sweats.

Those threatered with Consumption, should bear in mind that "Wistar's Balsang of Wild Cherry "is the remedy that has performed cures of Consumption that were thought almost miraculous—cures, which have astonished tee medical world, and brought the bloom of health to many a pallid cheek, and joy and gladness to many a despairing bosom.
