This is the title of a little work of near fifty pages, being a Lecture delivered by Jno. C. Schand, on the 15th of April, 1851, in this city. The Lecture was highly spoken of, and from the acquaintance which the gentleman undoubtedly possesses of the different isms which his discourse treats of, it, no doubt, will furnish a great deal of information to those who prosecute such studies. It was printed by Shyrock & Hacke, and presents a fair typographical appearance.

Theatre.-This evening, Barney Williams and his wife are announced to perform for the last time, prior to their departure for Europe. Barney Williams, in the particular line in which he performs the Irish character, has no rival on the American stage. The picture that he gives us of Pat, is not the one found in the drawing rooms and parlors of the wealthy, but the original Pot. as he is seen with his pick and hod-true to the life. To produce testimony in proof of the care of thirdiscase is acknowledgedly new. The public have so long to be a can be succeeded to the care of the cure of would seem almost a miracle, yet

SHIP FEVER HAS BEEN CURED.

And by the Great Vegetable Renedy, Dr. H. B. Mycore Extract, Dondellon, Wild Cherry, &c., alone.

We select the following, as a specimen of the numerous testimonials to the efficiency of this medicine in cases of this malignant discusse, which we have to exhibit. TENTANONY OF PHYSICIANS.

Francis Tiblimeso M. D. a salifly physician, residing in Buffalo, N. Y., and one who has devoted himself particularly to the study and cure of the Ship Fever, with almost every phase of which he is conversant, gives the following testimony in relation to the effects of this medicine, as prepared by himself:

"This is to certify, that I have used Dr. H. B. Mycre Extract of Dandelon, Wild Cherry, and Sarsaparilla, in my practice, in cases of a number of, patients sick with Ship Fever, with very beneficial results. And I consider it a general curative in that disease."
