Feron, Curtis, Keenan, and Hodge, of Philadelphia; Mr. Singsbaugh, of Lancaster; Mr. Parks, of Harrisburg; Mr. Mical, of Northampton; Mr. Webb, of York; Mr. Clark, of Westmoreland; Mr. Marshall, of Lebanon; Mr. Nevin, of Saquehanna; Mr. Leasure, of Greene; Mr. Lambertson, of Venango, were represented by their members of the Committee.

Several communications were received, and resolutions were adopted regarding the officers of the Committee to call on the Democratic Electors and Delegates for the usual pledges for publication.

The Chairman submitted the following address, which was read and unanimously adopted:

To the People of the United States.
Friend Citizens—The Central Committee of the Democratic party of Pennsylvania assembled at Harrisburg, on the 4th of March last, have thought it their duty to call on you, as citizens of the United States, to address you on a subject relating to the question of the next Presidency.

The choice of the party in this State, has been very much discussed, and the names of James Buchanan, William King, and William Seagrift, have been mentioned. It is the duty of the party to choose a man who will represent the people of this State, and who will be able to carry out the principles of the party.

Mr. Buchanan in the National Convention.
The Philadelphia Pennsylvania claims to contain, and admitted by every candid observer, that the vote of the entire Southern States, with the exception of Maryland and Louisiana, will be cast for the National Convention for James Buchanan. The opinion has already been expressed by many prominent Southern journals.
