Boily Morning Post. Horrible Tragedy. - A horrible tragedy occurred mother, under the following circumstances:to his step-mother. Owing to this fact, his father told the mother that he would load a musboy with it if he refused to obey her. The father loaded the musket with powder, and told her where he had placed it, but subsequently, with the intention of shooting a dog, he placed in the the change in the condition of the gun. On Thursday evening, a disagreement occurred between the mother and lad, during which, the which cut her cheek badly; she then put him out of doors. Mrs. Richardson was very much enraged at him when she put him out, and made return to the house until yesterday morning, and when she saw him approaching, she took the musket, and with the intention of intimidating him, snapped the gun, which did not go off, as it was not capped. She went into the house, got a cap, and returned, when she rested the gun over a fence, and fired. The lad dropped to the ground, and when Mrs. Richardson seen this was too far gone, and died about 20 minutes after the Doctor's arrival. The shot took effect in the bowels and left side, and one hundred and thirty seven shots enthe thigh: the two shots which were the immediate cause of his death, pierced the left exterand illeac artery, from which he bled to death .-Twenty four shots were extracted from his bowels, and the hip and thigh were mangled in a horrible manner. At twelve o'clock Mr. Coroner Arthurs was called upon to hold an inquest, and Dr. Shields held a post mortem examination of the body.-After the examination of the father of the lad, his two sisters, and the doctor, who were the principal witnesses, the jury returned a verdict that the shot was fired by Hester Richardson, his step-mother." Coroner Arthurs for a further hearing. The above statement is gleaned from the evidence before the jury and will be found correct. thing calculated to prejudice the mind of the public would be uncalled for and wrong. Stolen .- Thomas Klinefelter was committed to prison yesterday, having been charged before lars from a negro in Portser's tavern, in the Diamond, on Thursday night. It is alleged that Klinefelter entered the room where the negro was sleeping and took his pantaloons from under his head, and then abstracted the money from them, part of which was found in his possession. He was committed for trial. Horse Stealiny .- Information was laid at the Mayor's office, yesterday, against a man named Ramsey, in which he was charged with stealing a horse from Mr. Abraham Funk, near West Newton, on Thursday night. The man was traced to this city, and he offered the horse for sale yesterday morning. Officer Wells, after a diligent search, arrested him in the Diamond, in a tavern, and recovered the horse. He was com-Transportation .- The agent of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad, at Massillon, has given notice that he is now prepared to receive and contract for the transportation of flour from Massillon to Philadelphia at 80 cents, and to New York or Boston at $1,00 per barrel.
