Drowned.—A man by the name of John Brooks, a deck hand on the steamer Milton, was drowned by falling overboard from that steamer, near the mouth of the Ohio river. Brooks was from Columbus.

Boys shot four years of age, named Henry Heming, fell off a raft, near the Hand Street Bridge, on Saturday evening. He was carried by the current below the canal locks, where he was seen by a lady named Lynch, who swam out, and brought him into the shore, but, unfortunately, life was too far gone. The father of the deceased resides in Morgan Street Alleyway.

The bar keeper of the Altonian, Mr. Pappas, was nearly drowned on Saturday last, by falling into the river, as he was passing from the Pump and to the Altonian. He was rescued, however, in an exhausted state.

Flight from Justice.—Mr. Fox, our very efficient juror, received a telegraphic despatch, a few days ago, from the Sheriff of Columbus county, Ohio, stating that a man named Richard Nolan, alias Knowles, who had been imprisoned in the jail of New Lisbon for horse stealing, and effected his escape some three months ago, was supposed to be in the flight of the present time. Mr. Fox took a look out for the gentleman, and on Sunday afternoon arrested him on Chatham street. He was committed to prison, to await the orders of the Sheriff, who was also committed to answer this charge.

Stabbing Case.—A man named John Spade, established on Saturday afternoon, about four o'clock, by a German named Ernest Wagner, at Wolf Tavern, in the Fifth Ward, and who was a waiter in the establishment. Spade was in the tavern, with some companions, when Wagner came in. They quickly got into an altercation about it, and Wagner worked up to a high pitch of rage, and put his fist into Wagner's eye, and then he drew a small knife and stabbed Spade in the right hand and in the left. He then made his escape.

Dr. Walters was called upon to attend the wounded man. The doctor, after an examination, testified that though he was badly hurt, he did not believe Spade to be in danger of his life, from the wound he received. An officer of the name of Wagner, and placed in the office for the arrest of John Spade on Sunday morning in the upper part of Allegheny city. He was then committed to prison, to await the orders of the Sheriff, who was also committed to answer this charge.

More and Deeper Stolen.—A horse and carriage, belonging to Mr. Leech, a coal merchant, of this city, was stolen in the following manner on Sunday night: A young man in the employ of Mr. L. had driven the horse and carriage to the residence of Mr. Leech, and when he returned, he was engaged there, some fifteen minutes, when he was taken to the carriage, and the horse and carriage were driven away. The horse was a bay, and the carriage was a four-wheeled one. The thieves were too fast for the watchman, and the horse and carriage were driven away. German Emigrants.—Large numbers of emigrants, from the "Vandalia," bound for the great west, have been passing through our city for some time past. The route by the Ohio river, offers great inducements, to emigrants, for speed and comfort, there being no transshipments after leaving this city, on our fine steamers.

Clothing Drying House.—A reconstruction has been presented to the Mayor, signed by some of our most influential citizens proposing a new plan for drying clothes. For some reason or other, Saturday night, appears to be the favorite evening, for worshippers of Bacchus to commence their orgies, and, as a consequence, the Mayor has a great amount of business on Sunday mornings.

Miss Davenport will appear to-morrow evening at the Casino in Sheridan Knickerbocker's Play of Love. During her engagement, several new plays will be produced, among them the powerful drama of the Actress, which was written for Miss Charlotteushman.

Reception.—The delegates and visitors to the Missionary Association will be received by the committee of arrangements at the First Baptist Church, corner Third and Grant streets, where lodgings will be assigned them.

Star Bakery and Ice Cream Saloon.—The new building, which was erected on the corner of the Fifth and Washington streets, is now ready for occupancy. It is a fine building, and will be a great benefit to the community.

Notice to Contractors.—The Board of Public Works has received proposals for the construction of a new building, and the lowest bidder will be awarded the contract.
