MR. KNOX'S LAST CARD.

JOSEPH KNON, Esq., is determined to secure the nomination for Congress in this district. He is very busy at work, especially in the country. where he attends all the military parades and other public gatherings, such as log-rollings; barn raisings, &c. In the country, the pretty damsels declars that he is the best looking man spoken of for Congress, with the exception of Gen LARINGE. He stands amongst the other whig candidates, like Saul amongst the Pro-

The causes from this medicine have been, and will be, just in proportion to the number of causes in which it is used. Its only miraculous powers, are those which it possesses from and in common with natore, whose ope-rations it can only acsist and hasten. Its action is im-mediate, and, though calm, cuergetic. It allays irrita-tion while it promotes secretion and exercision. It can never fail to pallinte, and where a cure is possible, it will cure. This was the theory of the medicide as im-reated; and experience, in numerous cases, of every kind and variety, has demonstrated the correctness of its principles.
