Associate Synod-Seventh Day .- This body met on Wednesday evening, when the committee to Mr. Patterson, for the basis of union proposed by the Union Convention, reported in favor of the adoption of the substitute. After the transaction of some unimportant business, the Synod adjourned, until yesterday After the reading of some reports and communications, a motion was made and carried, that Various amendments were offered and discussed, but, without coming to any conclusion, the costs. Synod adjourned. In the afternoon, the discussion on the substitute and amendments was continued. The question was called for, and a vote taken on the adoption of the substitute offered by Rev. Mr. Patterson—it was adopted by a large majority, only one or two voting in the negative. The following is a copy of the substitute, as offered by Mr. Patterson. It was adopted, with but a few immaterial alterations from it, as originally reported: Whereas, The Associate Synod cannot harmo Union proposed by Synod's committee; and Whereas, The Associate Reformed Synod did, in 1849, request of us an exhibition of our views with regard to some practicable plan for the accomplishment of the object of our labors and Whereas, The Associate Reformed did propos a basis of union, in which they declare their adherence to the Westminster Confession of Faith, Larger and Shorter Catechism, Form of Presby terian Church Government, and Directory for Worship, and that the same system of faith, ship and government in the standards of the diflved, That the Associate Synod presents ciate Reformed Synod now in session the declaration and testimony of this church, excepting those on Psalmody and Covenanting, with the chapter in the amended draft of basis overturned at the last meeting on psalmody, llavery, covenanting, oaths and secret societies use of spirituous liquors, church communion the confessions testimonies, together with nation contained in the draft, or the subject of the civil magistrate's powers. After the vote, various resolutions and moons were offered, in reference to the manner in which the Union should be carried into execution. A resolution was adopted, however, providing for the appointment of a committee to prepare the basis of union adopted, and preser it in person to the Associate Reformed Synod, now in session in Pittsburgh. Rev. Messrs. Patterson, Cooper and Beveridge were appointed as the committee. A resolution providing for the appointment of a committee to prepare for publication that part of the basis additional to the testimony, adopted. offered, having a bearing on the contemplated rejected. The Synod adjourned to meet at 8 o'clock this Attempted Swindling .- A case was before Ald. tle of a drover, promising to pay him at some future day; some time clapsed, and the drover demanded his money—the butcher refused him, telling him he owned no property, and that he could not collect it; but he finally gave him an order on a man who owed him, as he alleged, conduct of her officers, are sufficient to insure of their services by being jolted over a bad A Good More, -The dry goods stores on Marof 1851,) on and after Tuesday next, at the hour of seven o'clock P.
