* The Gazette of yesterday, publishes a statement made out by the Washington correspondent of the North American, which gives Gen. Scott 150 votes on the first ballot, Fillmore 98, and Webster 21. But the writer thinks the friends of Gen. Scott will, from mere complacency, permit a portion of their strength to "roll off" on the first ballot, and give him a triamphant nomination on the second. He says: It will be seen that, without drawing on any reserved strength, Gen. Scott could be nomina-ted on the first ballot. But these are considerations which may induce his friends to yield a of live stock. part of even this original force. Should a secand ballot occur, the following result may be anticipated : Already ascertained for General Scott, 150. Additional Votes on Second Ballo
