THE WHIG NOMINATIONS

We have no spite against these gentlemen. All those the ticket whom we know, we like as fellow citizens, and we like them also as Whig candidates...

A dispatch from Boston, dated June 1st, says: "At a meeting of the Whig citizens last evening, a committee was appointed to make arrangements to invite Mr. Meagher, the Irish patriot, to visit Boston..."

We would suggest that the Irish citizens of Pittsburgh, and others who feel the patriotic pulse of the Emerald Isle, get up a meeting here for the purpose of extending an invitation to Mr. Meagher to pay our city a visit.

Somebody writes to the Standard: "The Whig party in this city is so badly cheated! The Whig party in this city is so badly cheated! The Whig party in this city is so badly cheated!"

It is not known that he was a party to the fraud; his name was not on the list of names published in the Standard. It is not known that he was a party to the fraud; his name was not on the list of names published in the Standard.

We have been told by those who know that Mr. Meagher is a man of high character, and that he is a man of high character, and that he is a man of high character.

German laborers, it is said, are preferred by the contractors in the interior of Illinois, and to the coast of California, it is estimated, about 15,000 emigrants.

Dricks for building are now brought from Chicago to New York. It is estimated that $200,000 will be invested in new buildings at Cincinnati, Ohio, this year.

The export of tea from China shows an increase of 1,800,000 lbs., compared with last year; of silk the increase is about 9,000,000 lbs.

MEAGHER, THE IRISH PATRIOT

By a telegraphic dispatch from Albany we learn that one of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings ever held in that city, for any purpose whatever, convened on Tuesday evening, in the City Hall, to make arrangements for the reception of Mr. Meagher, the Irish patriot...
