Commonwealth vs. John M'Connell, John Kendall, and George W. Sword. Indictment, assault and battery, with intent to kill. The affray for which these persons were indicted took place in short time since, and by which the prosecutor was badly stabbed by Sword, who is deaf and dumb. The jury returned a verdict of guilty as to Sword, but recommended him to the mercy of guilty. Sword was remanded for sentence. plate of glass in the window of Mr. Richardson's not guilty, on the grounds of insanity. The prisoner was remanded to the county prison, and will, we judge, be sent to the Irsane Asylum at Harrisburgh. Several trifling cases of assault and battery and surety of the peace were before the Court, but were quickly disposed of, and would interest no one. An Amazon.-One Christiana Wolf was held the larceny of a watch, from a man named Miller. A few days ago her bail, growing distrustful as to whether the fair one would be forthcoming at the proper time, gave her up. But Christiana was at Freeport, and an officer was despatched to arrest her; on Monday evening she was "nabbed," and shipped on the canal for this city. At Tarentum, however, the fair, but frail one, managed to escape, through the connivance of a lov-ier, it is stated. But the police officer was not to be foiled; he posted back to Freeport and again arrested Miss Wolf-put her on board the Freeport packet, and arrived with his precious charge yesterday morning. But the lady was not satisfied with her exploits, and watching a favorable opportunity, she made a leap, cleared the boat, and was seen, a moment after, floundering in the canal, to the great amusement of the spectators. The officer was he was deaf to entreaties. A lucky idea was thought of, and with great dexterity h tached to a pole; and drew her to the shore, where she arrived, exhausted and overpowered A carriage was called for, and the "ladie fair" was taken to jail, where we are afraid she will not have much chance to improve her aquatic Counterfeit Money .- Our readers have seen a statement, in relation to a batch of bank notes, issued by a branch of the State Bank of Ohio, which were so wretchedly engraved, that they have almost universally been taken to be counterfeits. A gentleman, the other evening, attempted to pass one of these notes on the barkeeper of the floating palace, who refused, on the score of its being counterfeit-he tried to get it changed in other places, but no person would take it, as they judged it, from appear. ances, to be a rank counterfeit. The poor fellow was finally arrested, for attempting to pass counterfeit money-but was released, when it was found to be a specimen of rag money, the like of which had never been seen before. A Banter.—The late ran of the Allegheny from Louisville to Cincinnath has exoited the boatmen in other quarters, and we learn from the St. Louis Republican that the Alton packet, Altons, will be backed by her owners against any three boats that may be named, to run the distance between Louisville and Cincinnati—each boat patting up $5000. This banter is directed particularly to the owners of the Allegheny, Buckeys State and Telegroph. It appears that the regular "frace ground" for fast boats is the run from Lonisville to Cincinnast, and we hope for the honor of the boat-builders on the Ohio, that the above banter will at once be accepted.

Entenced.*—John T. Hutchinson was sentenced by the Court, yesterday, to pay the costs of presecution, in a surety of the peace case, and give bail in the sum of $500 for his good behaving. Hutchinson, who gives steady employment to half the aldermen in the city, was committed in default of bail.

The Riner.—The constant rains we have had for some days past have brought the river up to a fine navigable stage for all kinds of steamers. BEMARKABE GURE—Louisville, Ey, May, 1881.—On the 7th of May, 1881, Rev. M. D. Williams, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, in Louisville, Ky, was and had been for a long time confined to his room, and most of the time to his bed, with Dysepeia and Chronic Diarrhoza, and was to all appearance on the very verge of the grave, and acknowledged to be so by his physician, who had tries all the ordinary means in his power without effect; and at the above named time, the patient, by the consent of his physician, commenced the ase of Dr. Honghton's Pepsin, and to the astonishment, surprise and delight of all, he was much relieved the first day. The third day he left his room. The sixth day, which was excessively not, he rode ten miles with no bad effect; on the eighth cay he went on a visit to the country, and on the hirteenth day, though not entirely restored to his natural strength, he was so far recovered as to go alone a journey of five hundred miles, where he arrived in safety, much improved in health, having had no disturbance of the stomach or bowels after taking the first once of Pepsin. These are faction controvertable, and this is a case which ought to convince all skepties that there is a power in Pepsin. Let physicians and dyspeptics invertigate.
