In the case of the death in the coal-pit, the very circumstances under which the man was found, presented incontrovertible evidence that he had been killed by the falling of a portion of the roof of the pit; and from his position, it was evident he could have come to his death in no other way. What motive, therefore, could there be for holding an inquest?

GEN. PIERCE'S GENEROSITY.—In addition to the facts about Gen. Pierce, which have been given to the public since the adjournment of the Convention, we are informed by a personal friend, who was the surgeon of one of the ten regiments, that after the battles of Contreras and Churubusco, Gen. Pierce, in visiting the hospitals crowded with wounded soldiers, expressed his feeling by distributing a large sum of money among the unhappy sufferers; and when he returned, on reactiving a balance of pay of $240, he added $60 to it, and expended it among his men. He also by his influence or purse, procured them free passages by the railroad. He sent money to many old soldiers.—Phil. Argus.

Expact of Yellow Dock and Sarroparilla, we feel confident that we are doing a service to all who may be afflicted with herofulous and other disorders originating in hereditary tain, or from imparity of the blood. We have known instances within the sphere of our acquain-Sarsaparilla alone.

It is one of the few advertised medicines that cannot be stigmatized with quackery, for the "Yellow Dock" and the "Sarsaparilla" ere well known to be the most efficient, (and, at the same time, innovious) against in the whole Materia Medica, and by far the best and purest preparations of them is Dr. Guygani's Yellow Dock and Saraparilla. See advertisement

IIP The Best Possible Remedy for Con-sumption: DR. WISTAR'S DALSAM OF WILD OffERRY, is just the remedy that a pure minded, un-prejudiced man, thoroughly acquainted with every sys-tem of practice, and well acquainted with the whole Materia Medica, and experienced in general practice, would recommend as the best possible remedy, for the care of Conghs, Colds, Asthma, Broachius and Con-sumption. dial agents from which Dr. Guyzout's improved Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla is formed, and the laboratory of Dr. Guyzout has given us the virtue of these toots in their perfection. His preparation contains all the restorative properties of the roots, combined and concentrated in their utmost strength and efficacy.

Experiments were made in the manufecture of this medicine, until it was found that it could not be further improved.

Accordingly, we find it resorted to almost universally in cases of Hepatic, Soorbutic, and Culaneous comments. Western Star Lodge, No. 24, meets every Wednesday
