THURSDAY MORNING......JULY 1. TRIAL FOR MURDER. WEDNESDAY, June 30. In the Court of Over and Terminer .- Before Hon. Wm. B. M'Clure, President Judge; and William Boggs and Patrick M'Kenns, Esqs. Associate Judges. tried together. his wife, administered a poisonous substance appeared very much composed, and looked in formation of a jury. AFTERNOON SESSION. challenging of jurymen who were opposed to creat deal of trouble: Robert Neal, Elgin K. Bruce, D. R. Miller, John M. John Samuel Black, Wm. J. Sterling, John Hammit, Wm. Larimer. David Collins. N. B. Fetterman, Esq., opened the case on the part of the Commonwealth. He detailed in a forcible manner, the grounds the prosecution rested on, and proceeded with the examination of witnesses. The first one called was Mr. Jas. James Cuthbert, sworn .- I reside in this city, on Front street; resided there on the 4th Aprilate; my family was composed of my children, self, and John and Honora Cauley; the child were in good health on the 4th April last; John Cauley and his wife, Honora Cauley, occupied Cauley testified to as correct, and which Mr. Fet- Adams, 15. terman had explained to the jury in his opening from the outside, from the manner in which it was surrounded by houses, without discovery, dren to mourn his loss. and also that the watchfulness of a house dog which he had in his possession, would permit no person to enter the yard.] I never had any poison about my house. On Sunday, the 4th of April, I was writing in the front room; I was writing in the front room; I was sitting with my side to the table, with my face to the alley. My dog was in the front room at that time, but he was put in the kitchen as he made a noise, while playing with a smaller dog and the children. It was daylight, at the time, and rainy. I wrote till about 5½0'clock, when my wifewent into the kitchen, and put on the tea kettle. In about a quarect, and put on the tea kettle. In about a quarect, their house.

I told him I did not know but that the children were very sick. He asked me what they had been taking. I told him I me what they had been taking; I told him I could not fell, but that they had taken something in their tea; at supper, he said there was no danger, for me to go home and give them strong coffee. I told the Doctor I would be glad if he would come along, and said he need have no fear about payment; he said he had none; as I walked out, the doctor told me to do as he directed if they vomited, and there would be no fear of The case of the Commonwealth vs. John Cauley said to the Doctor that he believed the children were poisoned. Cauley and Honors Cauley, came up this morning. Messrs, G. L. B. and N. P. Fetterman, and District Attorney Flanigan appeared for the Commonwealth; and T. J. Fox Alden and James K. monweaten; and T. A BOOK CONTAINING PROFESSOR BARRET'S Treatise on Six Different Languages!
English, Latin, Greek, Gramon, Spanish and French, is now in this city.

It is calculated to assist the business man dealing with I foreigners, and, also, the foreigner himself. In short, no person, young or old, desirous of improvement, should be without a copy of the work. A correct grammatical knowledge of the English, which it so important to all, together with the rudiments and all the common words and phrases of the other languages mentioncd, can be arquired with comparatively little effort, and in a short time. The Agent will call on the various gentlemen, merchants, mechanics and business men, of this place, to whom they will be extremely lappy to explain this new method. Let every one purchase a copy of the Agents, now in town, as this work is never sold at the Bookstores.
