The Ohio and Pannsylvania and Control Pannsylvania and Con WEDNESDAY MORNING.....JULY HORRID AFFRAY. A Man Killed .- An affray of a terrible charac ter occurred on the Monongahela wharf on Monday evening, about 6 o'clock. Samuel Mitchel a citizen of Allegheny, was stabled so severely as to result in instant death, by a weapon, it is charged, in the hands of David Jewell. James A. Cochran and others were also concerned in sons standing about the fire-plug, near Spang's warehouse. Saw blows struck by some persons in the crowd, but could not tell who struck; saw the affray, but it is contended Mr. C. did not use a knife, being merely concerned in the fight beto knife used. About six minutes after, saw the the day, and even then they could not accommofore it grew so serious. Mr. Cochran was cut on the hand, by Jewell, in endeavoring to ward off the blows directed by him against Mitchell.
