TYPE FOR SALE.

As we intend to clothe the Post in a new dress in the course of a few weeks, we shall then offer for sale three large fonts of type, together with the rules, title letter, &c., &c., now in use. There are about 1,000 lbs. of Nonpareil; 800 lbs. of Brevier, and 700 lbs. of Minion. These fonts will be sold very low for cash or approved paper. Those wishing to purchase will please apply soon.

☞ JOB PRINTING, of every description, executed at the office of the Morning Post in beautiful style, and on the lowest terms. Particular attention paid to the printing of Posters and Programmes for Concerts and Exhibitions of all kinds.

☞ The editor of the Gazette, as a general thing, does not affect facetiousness. His propensities are all of a solid order, and more calculated to make his readers weep than laugh, unless some of them who love merriment determine to laugh at his absurdities. But, whatever some may think, we know that the editor is decidedly funny. While in Baltimore, he wrote several very funny letters about the Southern members, and, after he had slept with some of them, he retracted all he had said against them.

But the funniest thing he has ever published appeared in his paper of Saturday, and it should be sufficient, for all time to come, to stamp him as a first-rate political wit. He wrote and published the following paragraph:

"The signs are as cheering for Gen. Scott in Ohio as in Pennsylvania. He will carry both States by a triumphant majority."

Now, could anything be more amusing than the above three lines? We could laugh most heartily at the facetiousness of our cotemporary, did not the feelings of humanity restrain our mirthfulness.

Just observe the sly manner in which the editor pokes his fun at Gen. Scott: He says "the signs are as cheering for Gen. Scott in Ohio as in Pennsylvania," and then to prove the fact that he is merely joking with Gen. Scott, in affecting to support him, he says "he will carry both States by a triumphant majority"! Some men may consider the indulgence in such fun the refinement of cruelty, but we think all men will have their jokes now and then, and see no reason why our serious neighbor of the Gazette should not be permitted to relax his tight drawn muscles, and laugh over the position of his party as a good joke.

The joke will, of course, be understood by his friends, as everybody knows that Gen. Scott has no more chance in Pennsylvania or Ohio than the editor of the Gazette has to be considered an oracle of the Whig party. The editor knows full well that Scott has not the slightest chance in either of these States, but he, with a cruel pleasantry, asserts that he stands a chance in both.

HON. ROBERT RANTOUL, JR.

This eloquent Massachusetts Democrat, who, for a few years past, has acted with the Free Soil party, we are rejoiced to learn, is "himself again." There was a grand mass meeting of the Democracy of the 2d congressional district of Massachusetts on the 5th instant, on which occasion MR. RANTOUL made an eloquent and powerful speech, in the course of which he declared his intention to support Gen. PIERCE for the Presidency. The speaker was greeted with the most enthusiastic applause.

The Boston Times, in noticing the proceedings, says: "A committee having been appointed to wait upon Mr. Rantoul into the hall, at a quarter past three o'clock, while a hundred guns were booming in honor of the occasion, and as a further mark of the gratification felt by the Democrats of the district upon meeting their Representative, Mr. Rantoul arrived. A storm of cheers rang out upon his entrance, and full ten minutes elapsed before the vast audience came to order. A more enthusiastic reception we never before witnessed than that given to Mr. Rantoul as he mounted the rostrum"

HOW IT TAKES.—The Erie Observer says, we were shown a bill of goods received by one of our merchants from a wholesale house in New York—the members of which are all whigs—to which was added a pertinent political postscript, which read thus: "What do you think of Scott for President? The Whigs have cut their throats this time. Pierce is our next President." A queer way, that, of "hooking one's friends."

WHIG PRINCIPLES.

To give the people an idea of the manner in which whig principles are carried out when that party gets control of the Government, we give a few of the leading items of their creed. The following is merely a portion of the pyramid of frauds erected by the Galphinites during the present administration:

BARRON, $30,000!
GARDINER, $100,000!!
CHICKASAW, $112,000!!!
GALPHIN, $120,000!!!!
HARGOUS, $800,000!!!!!

The footing up of this makes the nice little sum of one million one hundred and sixty-two thousand dollars that have been stolen from the people to enrich the Whig Galphinites. Speaking of this matter, the Cleveland Plaindealer truly remarks that the people are beginning to see that under the present Federal Administration, there has been too much plundering of the Treasury: too much Gardinerism; too exclusive an administration of our national affairs upon these seven principles, which form the basis, of the party in power—namely, the five loaves and two fishes. They have seen the Galphin operation carried out under the Taylor dynasty, whereby a member of the cabinet received from the National Treasury ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR HIS OWN USE. They have seen the Gardiner operation carried out under the Fillmore Administration, whereby they have good reason to believe that a member of the cabinet got upwards of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS from the People's Treasury, for his own private purposes. They have seen the allowance, by this Administration, of the Barron Pension Claim, by which the friends of those who are invested with power, have illegally and improperly received thirty thousand dollars, on a pension claim which had been long before adjusted and settled under the half-pay law. The Chickasaw Claim, by which eminent bankers in Washington city received from the Treasury ONE HUNDRED AND TWELVE THOUSAND DOLLARS, of a fund belonging to a tribe of Indians known as the Chickasaws. The Hargous Claim, under which EIGHT HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS was paid from the Treasury, when in fact those most conversant with the claim are of the belief that Mr. Hargous could not justly demand more than eighty thousand dollars; and for carrying which claim through, the counsel employed received one hundred and twenty thousand dollars, and as is believed by most, a member of the cabinet received THIRTY THOUSAND as council fees for his services. The Leggett claim by which other large amounts pillaged from Government by speculators who oftentimes have bought up these demands for merely nominal sums. These are some of the reasons among others why the country elsewhere, is so dissatisfied with the party in power—the spoils party, only held together "by the cohesive power of public plunder."

The above is a large heap of whig principles put up at random from a large lot still on hand. They are enough to publish at the present time, and when our whig cotemporaries have fully explained them, we have a few more of the same sort left to which we will call their attention.

Native American National Convention.

MR. WEBSTER NOMINATED FOR THE PRESIDENCY.

The Trenton True American says:—In another part of our paper will be found a report of the two days proceedings of this peculiar and remarkable Convention, which adjourned yesterday sine die, after nominating DANIEL WEBSTER for President, and GEORGE C. WASHINGTON for Vice President.

The great points of excitement were upon altering the old PLATFORM of the faction—changing its NAME—and the policy of making a NOMINATION. These things were all opposed by a large portion of the Convention under the leadership of Dr. REYNOLD COATES. The majority seemed to be under the fostering guidance of the notorious LEWIS C. LEVIN. The platform was changed—the title "NATIVE," was dropped and upon the withdrawal of the minority the nomination was made.

This withdrawal was done in the bitterest manner—DR. COATES arising, and, in the utmost excitement, declaring "THE PARTY DISSOLVED!"—after which he retired, followed by his friends.

There was much talk in the Convention of WASHINGTON as the founder of Nativeism—and of their principles being drawn from the DECLARATION and the CONSTITUTION. At a meeting in the evening Mr. LEVIN also harped much upon these points.

The great quere now is—will Mr. WEBSTER accept this nomination? We think we can answer distinctly. If any considerable portion of discontented Whigs should take him up, he will accept both nominations—but if not, he will decline the distinction.

To the above remarks of the True American, we may add, that we see it stated in various quarters that Mr. WEBSTER will accept the nomination of the Natives. The following telegraphic despatch from Philadelphia appears in the New York Herald:

PHILADELPHIA, July 7, 1852.

The American party are firing a salute of one hundred guns in honor of the nomination of Webster and Washington. Mr. Webster passed through the city this afternoon, and the nomination was tendered him. He is reported to have said that he would stand the fire.

MORE BOLTING—A TAYLOR ELECTOR REPUDIATING SCOTT.—Thos. D. Walpole, one of the Taylor electoral ticket in Indiana in 1848, repudiates Scott and whiggery, and calls for "more light," through the Indiana State Sentinel, as follows:

HANCOCK COUNTY, Ia., June 22, 1852.

W. J. BROWN, Esq.—Sir: Opposed as I am to the election of Scott for the presidency, you will please forward me your daily until the presidential election. THOS. D. WALPOLE.

The last New Lisbon (O.) Patriot publishes the following letter from Wellsville:

WELLSVILLE, June, 1852.

WM. H. GILE—Dear Sir: * * * * Mr. E. T. Albert, one of our most respectable and reliable citizens, and a gentleman, who has heretofore acted with the Whig party in every nomination which they have made, for County, State or National purposes, for the last ten years, says without reserve, open and above board, that he will not only withhold his vote from Gen. Scott, but that he will use his entire influence, both public and private, against his election. Mr. Robert Ralston, a Whig of 1840 birth, but who has acted with the party ever since, I am informed by Mr. Albert, is firm and decided in his opposition to the nomination of Scott, and is a man that can't be "whipped in." Mr. A. stated, also, that he knew other Whigs who would not support Scott, but did not give me their names. Yours, &c.

We know Mr. ALBERT, the gentleman above alluded to, well. He is a man who will never back out from what he says.

Hon. Mr. Gentry, of Tennessee.

The following letter from this distinguished member of the House was intended for publication in the Republic; but as that paper has no issue until Monday morning, the author has requested us to give it a place in the columns of this morning's Union. It affords us pleasure to comply with the request, and to place before our readers the correction of a statement which was attracting much public attention.—Union, July 4.

To the Editor of the Republic:

SIR: I request the use of your columns to correct a mis-statement which I am informed has appeared in the Baltimore Sun, and perhaps other newspapers, to the effect that the President has offered to appoint me to the office of Secretary of the Navy, made vacant by Mr. Graham's resignation, and that I declined to accept it. The President has not offered to confer upon me that honor, nor have I aspired to it. Justice to him requires that I should not permit a responsibility to attach to him, relating to me, which he has not assumed, and duty to myself requires that I should not by my silence seem willing to appropriate a distinction which has not been conferred upon me. Respectfully,

M. P. GENTRY.

WASHINGTON CITY, July 2.

For the Daily Morning Post.

SPEECH OF SAMUEL FLEMING, ESQ.

At the German Celebration of the 6th of July.

July 8th, 1852.

Dr. Werneburg and John Roth, Esq.,—

GENTLEMEN: Your letter has been received.—I thank you most sincerely for the kind terms you have used. Complying, as far as I am able, with your request, I have placed in the hands of the editors of the "Post," a few notes of my speech for insertion in their journal.

Another and, as I thought, a friendly paper refused the publication—why I know not and care not.

The kindness of the Germans to me, I can never forget, and gentlemen, with the profound est respect, I am your obedient servant,

S. FLEMING.

Citizens: We celebrate another return of the birthday of the nation! This day, seventy-six years ago, CHARLES THOMPSON read from the steps of Independence Hall the immortal paper which declared the Colonies a free Power. We were no longer a Province—we were the United States! We were no longer the subjects of a King—we were an independent and sovereign People! I need not tell you of the contest thro' which we passed. Often the hearts of the patriots were dismayed within them; the heavens were hung with black, and not a star shone through the gloom of the night; but everlasting glory be to the patriots! They threw themselves into the breach, and led the forlorn hope to victory.

Bunker Hill is classic ground, and Saratoga is classic ground; and every field of the Revolution is classic ground,—sacred as that on which the Jewish leader stood before the burning bush—classic as Leuctra, as Poictiers, as Thermopylæ. The Revolution stands alone. I challenge counterpart or parallel. The Commonwealth of England was the iron dynasty of Cromwell; and though it must be granted Puritanism did much service to the world, who will deny that Puritanism, with all its professions and with all its sanctity, paid little regard to the rights of conscience?

But here there is neither intolerance nor toleration. Here any altar may smoke—any worship be dispensed. And here if he chose, from the minaret of his Mosque, with his face towards Mecca, might the follower of the Crescent salute the dawn, and cry: There is but one God, and Mohammed is his Prophet!

The French Revolution, beginning in 1789, is unfinished; something more was born of that Revolution than Mirabeau or Robespierre. Who will say it was not appointed that the Exodus of France should be through the Red Sea? Germany was the first to hail the advent of the Republic—Klopstock and Schiller celebrated it in song—and the Constituent Assembly conferred on them the honor of citizenship. Fichte, from the philosophic chair, electrified the German youth with his eloquence, as he predicted in the fall of the Bourbons the liberation of Europe. No! The Revolution did not end with the inauguration of the Empire—it did not end with the accession of Louis Phillippe—it did not end with the Presidency. The Revolution still goes on, and will go on. It will take the Saxon and the Celt in its path. It will enact the Charter, it will re-open College Green, it will strike the chains from every bondman on the earth—no matter what his creed, what his hue, what his sky—if he is a man, the mission of this grand Revolution is to set him free. Germans! from the moment when Tarquin the Gaul put to death the Roman legions amid the marshes of the Rhine, down to the day when the burghers of Berlin and Vienna, and Baden, thundered at the gates of Hapsburg, down to the martyrdom of Blum, the history of your fatherland is full of blessed memories of heroic sufferings and sacrifices; and there is not a river bank, or forest, or mountain gorge, that is not guarded by the shade of some hero nobler than Curtius, greater than Riensi!

Many when I address this day are my witness—I behold near me a man whose hair is white as the driven snow, from five years confinement in a prison, because he bore testimony for the truth.

Yonder, in the quiet graveyard, sleeps the brave Captain—the young Exile. Let me say with the bereaved Jean Paul, "may the flowers above him know no winter!"

Why should Humanity stop in her march? "The eternal years of God are hers." Not forever shall the nations walk in the Valley of Shadows." Not forever shall the giants grind in the prison-house but the mock and sport of the temple. The Voices of the Ages, and the shouts of the millions assembled this day under the American Flag, bid the oppressed of every land wait their time!

Gen. Pierce and the Fourth.

Gen. Franklin Pierce was present at the meeting of the Cincinnati Society, of Massachusetts, reported a series of resolutions, and delivered an eloquent eulogium on the death of Henry Clay. Gen. Pierce's father was an original member of this patriotic Society when Washington was President of it. At the Democratic celebration of the day in Philadelphia, the following beautiful and patriotic letter was read from Gen. Pierce:

CONCORD, N. H., June, 30 1852.

GENTLEMEN:—There are many reasons why it would be peculiarly gratifying to me, to accept your kind invitation, and pass the next anniversary of Independence as a nation, in Philadelphia.

Wherever an American citizen is found on the recurrence of that day, whether upon his own, or upon a foreign soil, his thoughts instinctly turn to the consecrated locality of the most sublime spectacle presented in the history of governments, and his heart beats quicker and warmer for the disenthrallment of the oppressed everywhere, as his free glance is turned toward "Independence Hall."

The suggestions of severe prudence may, for the moment, be to the contrary, but it is well, that once in every year, full latitude be given to the impulses that gush out, and the generous ardor that glows, for the firm establishment of constitutional liberty, throughout the world. It is well that we recount the sacrifices, at which this glorious Union, with all its multiplying blessings, was purchased. It is well that, in the midst of our congratulations, we remember, that in the weakness of our infancy as a people, not only words of cheering were sent across the ocean to greet us, but upon its bosom, were borne to our shores hearts to sympathise, and arms to strike. How the cherished memories of the noble dead of other lands, whose blood mingled with that of our fathers in the struggle that followed the Declaration, the anniversary of which you are to commemorate, come thronging with the grey dawn of that day of general jubilee. So may they ever come! So will they ever come, while we are faithful to the Constitution, true to our mission, and heedful of the lessons of wisdom which have descended to us.

Independent of the retiring associations to which I have averted, it would be pleasant to participate in the National festival in Philadelphia, because I should meet numerous friends whose acquaintance I enjoyed at Washington, many years ago, and more, perhaps, for whom I formed ties of unalterable attachment, in that different field of service in which so many of your citizens were called in 1847.

With these strong inducements for compliance, you will readily appreciate the deep regret I feel, in being compelled to deny myself the pleasure of meeting the sterling Democracy of your city and county, as proposed.

I have made arrangements to attend the anniversary of the Society of Cincinnati, instituted by the officers of the American army, at the close of the Revolution, of which my father was an original member. There is no longer hope of meeting the patriarchs, whose names appear with that of the Father of his country, upon the old Constitution of the Society, but I feel a strong desire to be with their descendants on that day.

Accept, gentlemen, for yourselves, and present to the Democracy for whom you speak, my grateful acknowledgements.

With the highest respect,
Your fellow citizen,
FRANK. PIERCE.

☞ The New York Herald, after noticing the signs of the times relating to the Presidency, says: "It is evident, from these indications of public opinion, both from the newspapers and the assemblies of the people, that the nomination of Gen. Scott had by no means been received, in the different sections of the country, with the same unanimity as the nomination of Gen. Pierce by the Democracy."

Somerset County.

In this benighted region of coondom the wooly heads have nominated the following ticket:

Assembly—Samuel M. Haller.
Sheriff—Robert R. Marshall.
Commissioner—Abram Beam.
Coroner—John H. Smith.
Auditor—John Howard.
Director—Henry J. Helple.

NEWS ITEMS.

On the 5th of July there was more rioting and fighting in New York, than in any other city in the Union.

It is said that Senator Seward will soon make a speech in the Senate, attacking, trampling and spitting upon the Whig platform, but supporting the Whig nominee.

In 1847, the Trenton, N. J., Gazette, a whig paper spoke of Gen. Scott as "weak, silent passionate, illiberal, and devoid of true principles of religious freedom."

Employment at every department of the cotton trade in the North of Ireland is abundant. Throughout the rural districts women and girls find ready demand for their labor in the ornamental branches of this manufacture.

Mr. Thrasher has been lionized in New Orleans. The Picayune of that city also states that Gen. Lopez's body servant, who accompanied Mr. Thrasher to Cuba, was present and attracted much attention.

It is stated that M. de Sartiges has not been recalled. The ugly ladies are not so soon to be relieved from his presence, nor the cats and rats from the deadly aim of his pistol on Sunday.

The veteran Commodore Morgan, commander of our naval squadron in the Mediterranean, after a three year's cruise, has returned home with his family, and is now at the seat of government.

The Athens Banner, known as the organ of Governor Howell Cobb, of Georgia, declares that the Union party is dissolved, and that the Democrats will adhere to their party nominations.

There are two thousand seven hundred and fifty-five places in Philadelphia where liquor is sold.

The Trenton (N. J.) True American says: We are informed that there is a "PIERCE CLUB" in Newark, composed of about 250 original Whigs. All Wright!

The Washington Monument is going on slowly. Out of funds.

The Boston Bee says, that a "Pierce club of Webster men" is forming in that city.

In some of the Winward Islands cattle are dying for want of water.

The Boston Bee still keeps at the head of its editorial column, "for President Daniel Webster."

The Daily Wisconsin says that the emigration to Western Wisconsin, was never larger or of a better class.

Mr. and Mrs. Pulszky, of Kossuth's suite, sailed for England, in the Baltic, from New York, Saturday.

The Coinage at the Mint in Philadelphia for the month of June, 1852, amounted to $4,345,303 88, and the deposits during the same period to $6,687,000.

A new paper called "The News," has been started in San Francisco, of which J. B. Crockett, editor of the St. Louis Intelligencer, who is now in San Francisco, is spoken of as the editor.

ITEMS FOR POLITICIANS.

SOUP CLUBS.—The Kitchen Cabinet of whiggery has given the word to organize "Soup Clubs," and the faithful are expected to go thro' the farce. Those who stir in such matters, thinks the Baltimore Argus, may be safely designated "Spoons."

The Richmond Enquirer promises to publish a speech of Geo. W. Purkins, Esq., an able, eloquent and influential whig, who, before a very large democratic meeting in Halifax county, repudiated Gen. Scott and avowed himself for Pierce and King.

Col. A. G. Ege, lately a whig member of the Maryland Legislature, made a speech the other day, in favor of Pierce and King at the ratification meeting at Carlisle, Pa.

Gen. Martell has also abandoned the Whig party, and will lead a hand to elect Pierce and King.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Express says that Col. Wm. B. Campbell, present whig Governor of Tennessee, who served in the Mexican war, has "telegraphed to Tenn. members of Congress that he will not abide by the nomination" of Scott.

A democrat of our city was hailed the other day by a whig, with the question—"Do you know who Pierce is?" "Yes," replied the democrat. "He is the man that volunteered to go to Mexico when Scott hesitated, for fear of the 'fire in the rear!'"

Gen. Scott won five battles in one day; Gen. Pierce fell from his horse four times in two days. Hurrah for Pierce!—Rich. Whig.

Scott was taken prisoner by the enemy, while Pierce whipped the enemy and took them prisoners.

"Hurrah for Pierce!"—say we.

Gen. Scott's Religious Views.

CHESTER, ILLS., June 25, 1852.

GENTLEMEN—Many good men in this part of Illinois accuse Gen. Scott of being a Catholic, and refuse to vote for him on that account.—Please inform your readers whether, or not, he is a Catholic—Republican.

The following extract, from an article in the Alton Courier of June 24th, will without doubt satisfy "many good men" about Chester, that Gen. Scott is far from deserving the accusation thus brought against him, and we trust also that it may serve to convince our Roman Catholic friends, (whose votes are solicited on the ground that the General is a Catholic) that so far from sympathy with them, he is thoroughly imbued with the most bigoted notions in regard to the highest functionaries of their sacred Church.

"In 1841, Gen. Scott published a circular letter in answer to certain political inquiries which had been propounded to him. This circular shows him to be man of exceedingly limited and illiberal views. Of the one term principle, so much harped upon by the Whigs in 1840, Gen. Scott says: "I do not consider it respectable to the people, nor otherwise proper in a candidate, to solicit favor on a pledge that, if elected, he will not accept a second nomination" and then he takes special pains to go out of the legitimate scope of his letter, for the purpose solely, it would appear, to cast an imputation upon the highest dignitaries of the Catholic Church. He proceeds to say that the giving a pledge not to be a candidate for re-election, looks "too much like the interest that sometimes governs the Cardinals in the choice of a Pope, many voting for themselves first, and if without success, finally for the most superannuated, in order that the election may the sooner come round again."

What necessity for this imputation upon the integrity and honesty of those highest in the esteem of all Catholics, and who have been elevated to their positions, as is to be supposed, on account of their distinguished learning, goodness, and piety?

☞ The New York Herald says: What remains of the delapidated Native American party assembled in National Convention at Trenton on Monday? After striking the word "native" from the title of the party, the old platform of 1845 was re-adopted. So it is the same old spavined hack, after all, notwithstanding that it has been trimmed and brushed up a little for the occasion. A very animated debate sprung up on the question of nominating Mr. Webster for President, and George C. Washington for Vice President. The speakers became quite excited, and it was not until many of the members had withdrawn that the nominations were made.

THE PANAMA RAILROAD STOCK.—The reason assigned at New York, for the extraordinary advance in the price of the Panama Railway stock, which last week rose about 20 per cent in three days, viz: from 120½ to 140, is that the company by the last steamer were apprised that the fee simple of the entire island, upon which Aspinwall is situated, had been obtained from the Government of New Granada, of which they had previously only held a lease. The island is capable of being made use of as a site for a large town, and the population is rapidly increasing. The rond itself is of a great importance.

A CAMPAIGN SONG.

AIR—Old Dan Tucker.

Come sons of Freedom all draw nigh,
And let us raise our banners high,
Come let us strike for our cause is just!
In Democratic Truths we trust.
Clear the track for Pierce is coming,
Clear the track for Pierce is coming,
Clear the track for Pierce is coming,
And Col. King with him is running.

Hurrah for Pierce! he is on the track,
And Col. King is at his back,
They both are honest, good and true,
And whig humbuggery will not do.
Get out of the way for Pierce is coming,
And Col. King with him is running.

We whipped the whigs in forty-four,
As we has often done before;
They did not know our James K. Polk,
And swore his name was all a joke.
Get out of the way for Pierce is coming,
And Col. King with him is running.

Our principles are still the same
We never stoop—nor change our name;
We stand united in the fight,
And whiggery we put to flight.
Clear the track for Pierce is coming,
And Col. King with him is running

Our cause has stood the test of time,
Our principles like gold do shine;
While Federal whigs change every year
And in new dresses do appear
Clear the track, you whigs remember
We'll give you guss in next November.

"Great and Little You."

[For the Boston Post.]—Gen. Scott, in his letter accepting the nomination for president, is I all over and throughout. No less than fifteen times does he thus display his egotism. "I have had the honor"—"I am made to feel"—"I lost not a moment"—"I now have the honor"—"I accept"—"I therefore barely suggest"—"that should I be elected"—"I shall be ready"—"I should"—I should seek to cultivate harmony throughout the whig party" [not throughout the great body of the people]—"I should be rigorous"—"I shall neither countenance nor tolerate"—"I shall carry"—"I can offer no other pledge"—"I have the honor to remain."

Again—"My unanimous (!) nomination"—"My country men"—"My heart"—"My own"—"My new position"—"My reply"—"My countrymen"—"My connection"—"My views"—"My strict adherence"—"feeling myself"—"My associate"—"My obligations."

That letter was deliberately written; every word was carefully weighed and chosen for the public eye; it was not prepared over "a hasty plate of soup," although the writer might have just taken one.

"Anticipating a fire in front and rear," this semi-official document is put forth, made up of "fuss and feathers," with a view to popularity; popular breath cannot inhale it, but will blow it to the winds. CITIZEN.

SCOTT WITHOUT THE PLATFORM.—The Whigs of Washington county will support Gen. Scott, whilst they repudiate and discard the platform on which he stands. At least this is to be inferred from the proceedings of their convention on Tuesday. What a beautiful position for a party to occupy! Where now are the boasted principles of Whiggery? "Echo answers where?"—Washington Examiner.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ Symptoms of Disease should never be disregarded. They are unerring indications that the vital functions of nature have been interrupted in their healthful action, and that serious evils must inevitably follow, unless the system be again set right by the timely use of proper remedies.

Bear in mind, that nature is ever endeavoring to expel disease, when it invades the animal economy, and only needs the assistance of some genial restorative—thorough, yet mild in its action—that will give tone to the system, and set upon the blood—which is the principal of life.

GUYZOTT'S YELLOW DOCK AND SARSAPARILLA, as a purifier of the blood, a renovator of the system, and a supporter and preserver of the powers of life, it has no equal. Take it, on the first indication that disease is upon you, and you will avert, perhaps weeks and months of sickness and suffering.

F. S. Cleaver's 'Prize Medal Honey Soap.'

☞ The continued and increasing demand for the above desirable article, unquestionably demonstrates from actual experience, its superiority over all similar preparations. It has now stood the test of careful examination, and the approval of the public for a period of seven years; and, under an unbounded patronage, and unexampled circulation, has triumphantly survived all its rivals in the art of imitation and imposture. Its extensive merit, (realized by immediate use) places it foremost in the list of all those toilet Soaps, that by an overwrought perfumery, have found their way to an ambiguous and temporary notoriety.

A Sure Reliance.

☞ So certain are the effects of Dr. M'Lane's Liver Pills in cases of disordered Liver, that they are regarded as a Specific for that complicated class of diseases known as Hepatic. The patient has a medicine at hand upon which he can always rely. All that is necessary is to purchase and use Dr. M'Lane's Liver Pills, to secure a restoration to health. Read this:—

WILLIAMS TOWNSHIP, Allegheny County, Pa.
J. KIDD & CO.—Please let me have two boxes more of Dr. M'Lane's Liver Pills. My wife has used two boxes of the Doctor's Pills, and I assure you they have done her more good than my family physician has for two years, during which time he was in regular attendance. These two boxes, I think, will effect a cure.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ We advise you, if you have not already done so, to go at once and procure a bottle of KIER'S ROCK OIL, and by so doing you will save a great deal of suffering. There is no telling how soon you may need it. Read the following letter:

MUSCEE, June 4, 1852.

Dear Sir: I purchased a bottle of your "Petroleum," from your Agents, Magoffin & M'Kean, in this place, to cure a burn, which I received accidentally; and in less than twenty-four hours it was much better; and I am now able to walk around without the assistance of a cane. I was so badly burned that my friends had to carry me home.

If you think the foregoing statement will be of any use to you, you may make whatever use of it you see proper. Most respectfully,
THOMAS H. BRADFORD

To S. M. KIER.
To be had at all the principal Drug Stores. [jy10d&w
