Dan Rice .- The Steubenville Messenger speaking of Dan Rice's former residence in and about this city, says, (what is well known,) that Dan was in the employ of Col. Harding, formerly commandant of the Arsenal, who treated him very kindly. It appears from the Messenger that Dan has not forgotten it, for, (we quote from the above paper,) "during his recent visit to Pittsburgh, he presented Capt. II.'s daughter with a splendid horse, which he purchased in New Orleans for $300. He is a beautiful and noble looking animal, and the same rode by Gcn. Persifer F. Fires .- At half past two o'clock on Sunday afternoon, a fire broke out on Chatham street, in a stable on the grounds of the St. Paul's Or phan Asylum and belonging to that institution. There was no property of value in the stable and the fire, which was quickly subdued, originated in a pile of old matresses, which had been stored there.

The plarm yesterday morning, about one o'clock, was caused by the burning of a shed at one of the brick kilns, on Boyd's Hill.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON MARKET, July 3.—The Cotton market opened on Saturday with some inquiry, but, with a small amount offering, and high rates; the business was limited to about 250 bales. On Monday, about 1800 bales sold at very full rates; for the better qualities; and on Tneaday 1950 were taken, still without notable change in prices. On Wednesday and Thursday together, a business of berely 1200 bales was done, and yesterday about 200 bales were taken—the total sales of the week thas amounting to 5100 bales, taken mostly on Euglish account. The receipts at this porn from the 1st of September to date are 1,22,2475 bales against 959,026 to same date last year, and at all the United States ports there is an increase, compared with last year, of 607,607 bales.
