.....JULY 10 RAILROAD CELEBRATION. A large number of citizens, among them the Mayor of the city and the city Councils, were invited by a Committee of the citizens of Greensburg, to be present at the opening of the Penn sylvania Railroad to Rodebaugh's station, two miles west of Greensburg, yesterday. The party, which was over two hundred in number, left yesterday morning, at 91 o'clock, in a train of five cars. The road over which they passed, between Tuttle Creek and Bodebaugh's station, must have presented many obstacles to the en. would see Democrats and Whigs in the ranks togineers of the road, but the manner in which they have overcome them, speaks well for their enterprise and industry. All of you, gentlemen, are warmly welcome to Westmoreland. Glad as we have always been to see citizens of Allegheny county, there has been no previous occasion when they would be received with the enthusiasm of today.

Resolved, That the skill and quantications of the late and present Chief Engineers, Thompson and Miller, have insured to the traveling public a safe and speedy route west of the Alleghenies. But a few days ago, sir, a gentleman read, in my hearing, a petition of citizens of what is now of Messrs. McKinney, Stokes, Marchand, Shriwer and a host of others, citizens of Greensburg, Resided, into a separate county, to be called a tendered to Jno. Meskiners, Jno. Covode and Allegheny. The petition said that the pack road had been so much improved that two days only were required to go from Greensburg to Pittsburgh, and that Pittsburgh would, one day, rival Greensburg. It gives us great pleasure to say, that Greensburg does not rival Pittsburgh; and the Greensburg does not rival Pittsburgh; and the day had passed without any casualty.

Resided, That the thanks of the delegation is acked; the organ, allan, and ing burned in a bonfire. There was nothing left but the bare walls. The military was called out and succeeded in restoring peace. The town is now occupied with cavalry, it being reported that a Catholic mob from Manchester and other towns intended to retalisate. The riot grew on fill feeling engendered by the Queen's recent proclamation against Roman Catholic processions.

The Chicago Tribune of Monday, says:—Receipts continue large. Dealers, minongst whom there is a considerable amount of competition, readily take all that comes forward, at rar es ranging from 22 to 35c, according to quality and condition.

The sandusky Register of the 29th ult, says:—The increasement has somewhat subsided, and the transactions are not quite so brisk. Prices range from 35 to 35c. The receipts from islands and this was county are before 12 to 30,0000 hs this season. The quantity brought in by railroad continues large.

from 25 to 30,006 hs this season. The quantity brought in by railroad continues large.

At Milwaykie, we have the following statement for the week ending 29th ultimo:—The recepts during the yeak have been very large, reaching rearly 3000 hs.—Competition among buyers, more, than any real reason in the state of markets fast, has caused pression range high, the average being 31 to 4c higher prices to range previous. Several of the kengings clips have come in One clip of 1500 hs and over, yold on Tuesday at 35c. Dealers pay the high rates very refactantly, but, stui, they do pay them, and farmers are getting well publ about 2 (10) his 351c was offered for an except about 2 (10) his, but the holder wasted more.

The Livingston County Union (Mr. Morris) says—
Wool comes in market stowly. The price is not satisfactory to fattmers, and there is a holding back. Buyers are about the country picking up all the fleeces that are offered. Most of the shearing is done, and a large quantity of Wool yet remains in first hands. PORT OF PITTSBURGH.
