Impudent Robbery. -On Wednesday evening. As the Federal street Station, when the trunks and laggage were being given out to their different enterms, a fellow came up and claimed a trunk which was refused him, he not having a cheek. Insisting however in a consistent with the contract system and elect a public printer. Objected to. check. Insisting however in a confident man-ner that having neglected to take a check, it should not be kept from him, the trunk was handed over to him, after which he made him-self scarce, and has not since been heard of.— The House took up, in committee, the Defi-diency Bill, and receded from the amendment to which the Senate refused assent; that of the Senate appropriating $50,000 for per diem com-pensation and mileage of Senate, in other words pensation and mileage of Senate, in other words constructive pay for Senators has now to go back to the Senate. The trunk in question belongs to Mrs. Mowatt, the celebrated actress, who had a check for it, but the porter waiting for the crowd to disperse, FURTHER PARTICULARS BY THE ILLINOIS. it was gone away when he sought it. It contalacd upwards of $1500 worth of jewelry alone, besides other valuable articles. Since the above was written, we have learned that the trunk alluded to, has been brought to that the trunk alluded to, has been brought to | d the Mayor's office. Mutilated Bank Notes .- The teller of the Mer chants' and Manufacturers' Bank of this city refused to redeem a mutilated note of the Bank the other day. The reason alleged was that the Bank may be defrauded by having a number of fight ensued, in which two were killed and many its notes, of the same denomination, clipped to wounded. make an additional one. The case will be argued before Aderman Lewis on Monday next.

F. A. Beelen, Esq.-It is stated that our fellow citizen, F. A. Beelen, Esq., United States Consul in one of the towns in Venezuela, has resigned his situation owing to business connected with the Oronoco company, which has called him to Europe. He sailed from South America in one of the Royal Mail Company's steamers on the 1st of July.

Assault by a Drayman.-A drayman named George Williams was brought before the Mayor, vesterday, charged, on oath of William Gileson, with driving his dray ngainst Mr. G's. wagon, and then beating him with his whip on the head. Bail was given in the sum of $500, for the defendants' appearance at Court. Cholera.-Many rumors and stories are affoat in the city, about the cholers in Lawrenceville. Several deaths have resulted from that disease, it is believed in Lawrenceville, but it does not rage in an epidemical manner, and nearly all of the cases have resulted either from imprudence, or the disease was contracted on the river.

Temperance Meeting .- We understand there is to be a large gathering of the citizens of East Liberty, on Thursday evening next. Several of our most elequent speakers will address the good demand; sales 3000 bus prime white at meeting, which is to be held at half past seven $1,03; red wheat unchanged. Rye scarce and market bare. Corn limited, at previous prices.

Tearing Down .- Workmen are engaged in tearing down the house of the old Allegheny bridge, on the Pittsburgh side. Some of the pillars which supported this building had given way, and it was feared that to allow it to remain would endanger the safety of those passing.

Duncanson's Painting .- This splendid painting will be exhibited for the last time to-day, at Philo Hall, when the public will be admitted free. It is spoken of as one of the most splendid specimens of art ever exhibited in our city.
