A MILITARY GOVERNMENT.

Shall we have a military government? This is a question of the greatest importance, and every American citizen should be prepared to auswer it intelligently. CUSTOM HOUSE APPROPRIATION. BEMARKS OF HON. T. M. HOWE.

We have already announced that our member f Congress, Hon. T. M. Howr, had succeeded n procuring a further appropriation of $35,000, for the completion of the Custom House in this city. In the Washington Glabe of the 14th, we find the following remarks of Mr. Howe, sustaining his motion, which we take great pleasure of butter in one week-and that without extra in laying before our readers: Mr. Thomas M. Howr.—I move the following amendment:

For the completion of the custom house and other pub-c offices connected the rewl h, at Pittsburgh, $35,000 During the Thirty-first Congress, there were appropriations made for four custom-houses at our different points in the West-at St., Louis, Chocinnati, Louisville, and Pittsburgh. At the two former there were appropriations of $75,000 for the purpose of constructing and building these custom-houses. At the two latter points he language of the law is, that the entire cost There seems to me a discrepancy in the appropriation between the several points. At the city of Pittsburgh a lot has been purchased at an expense of $35,000, leaving $40,000 for building. This sum is entirely inadequate to construct such a building as the public wants require. It is a historical fact, that in the city of Pittsburgh the public records have been ex-posed to fire within the last five years. The stroyed by fire within the last five years. It is considered economy, therefore, upon the part of the Government to make such appropriations—a charge the duties of an office for which he was a building which will be fire-proof, and I have no doubt that gentlemen will concur with me and my constituents in that view of the subject .thousand dollars is inadequate to accom plish that result, and I propose, therefore, to in-crease the amount to $75,000 for the building, adding $35,000 to the $40,000 which now remain. This is the sum which has been recommended by the Secretary of the Treasury, as an amou

On the trial of that cause, our court heldthat no provocation would justify or mitigate an assault, unless so fresh that the assailant's blood lecision is now under review. While it stands for law, Mr. Willis can, for aught I see, writ me insolent letters with impunity, from the high seas, from New Orleans and from Harrodsburg Springs, and the luxury of punishing him fo n when we meet is placed almost beyond th reach of my limited means."

Mr. Willis, it appears, was offended at some of Mr. Van Buren's remarks on the Forrest dirce case, in which he was one of the counsel. The residence of the late J.
