ANOTHER DISH OF COLD SOUP.

As the Whigs appear to have a particular fondness for Scott Soup this year, we feel in- dren will cry for it as they do for lozenges. It clined occasionally to serve up for them a few was at first proposed to have the portraits of our "hasty" dishes, to be takendown whenever they three whig editors published in the work; but are afflicted with the bragging fever.

From our Whig and Democratic exchanges from all parts of the country, we continue to receive the most unfavorable intelligence respecting unity and harmony in the Whig party. In North Carolina, the home of the Whig nomince for Vice President, there is not a ray of hope for the Whig party. The Wilmington Commercial and the Asheville News, leading Whig papersone published in the eastern and the other in the western part of North Carolina-are out in the most decided terms against the Seward candidate. The Commercial, which was against Scott before the meeting of the Whig Convention, is exceedingly severe. The News notices the nomination of Gen. Scott thus:

"The news of this nomination fell like a cold chill upon the whig party here. They had hopdisappointment and chagrin were quite manifest. Some of the oldest and most substantial members of the party declare they will not support him, but stand aloof from the contest entirely." In Virginia, the condition of the Whig party is no better. The foregoing are but a few of a vast number of anecdotes which the subscriber has on hand;
but he flatters himself that every Whig will be gue.

What has become of the Scott Club that the whigs resolved some time since to start in his city? And most especially, what has beome of the Glee Club that was promised to charm the people with sweet music? Are both the attempts abortions? Cannot the politicians raise a shout for Scott, or the vocalists along to the approaching canvais. These anecores are cheer the drooping spirits of the party? We have seen it stated that they were organiting a club to sing in the present campaign .-Why do they not appear, and charm the citizens with the "sweet notes just proceeding from their throats," as they did in 1840 and '44? We are anxious that they should, for our boys are very desirous to come out, but they do not like to do it before "all the decency" opens the "bawl."-We therefore hope that the Scott Glee Club will make its first appearance as soon as possible.

ERAL WASHINGTON

(For General Circulation)
In the year 1798, General Washington hap pening to be in Richmond, Va., he was intro-duced to Mrs. Scott, the accomplished mother of the Hero of Mexico. The General was just old enough at that time to be sporting about his mother's knee. The father of his country, after the usual salutations to the mother, fixed his represent a leading whig principle. But on the eyes steadfastly on the child, with an intensity 300 carts, 50 wagons, 786 horses and mules and day of the election their music was not to be of interest, which he has never before or afterlaughed at, and their Buckeye songs sold the wards known to evince towards children.
