The Gazette is hard run to find something tha will be agreeable to its readers in relation to the 'Pandango at Lundy's Lane," and finding no thing interesting on the subject in the whig pa pers, it copies our article of Monday, in which we exposed the superlative folly of the whigs attempting to deceive themselves with the idea, that when they held a meeting at Niagara they were celebrating the battle of Lundy's Lane on the ground on which it was fought.

The facts stated in our article are conclusive, and cannot, with truth, be dealed by the Gazette, or any other whig print. The Gazette, however could not refrain from writing a column of silly words, meaning nothing, on our article. It reour readers that the celebration will take place near the village of Niagara, on the American side."
