OUR CORRESPONDENCE.

Carra Mat. N. J., Aug. 10th, 1852.

My dear Sir: I have been several weeks looking in the daily Atlantic. To-day I have in company with upwards of two thousand men, women and children. A beautiful spectacle it is to see so many human souls panting for the breath of life.

Every body here talks about nothing but the election, dressing, eating, drinking and sleeping. I am tired of this round, and have resolved to appropriate the balance of the day to thinking about politics, and now, I will get down to you my impressions of affairs, as they seem to me.

I think the coming Presidential election one of vast importance. It is important that we should have for our chief magistrate a gentleman unimpaired in mind and body. The Democratic party have presented to us as a fit person for the office of President, Gen. Franklin Pierce, of Concord, N. H., a gentleman who has occupied many public stations with distinguished ability.

At the early age of twenty-two he was elected a representative from his native town, and advocating in the Legislature of his State the principles of temperance, and maintaining the same in the face of the opposition. He was elected Speaker of the House in 1838. At the early age of twenty-nine, he was elected to a higher sphere of action by being nominated to Congress.

This was the period that the great Whig Democracy was at its height. The Whig Democracy was a noble and patriotic. The Democratic party have presented to us as a fit person for the office of President, Gen. Franklin Pierce, of Concord, N. H., a gentleman who has occupied many public stations with distinguished ability.
