His education and mental acquirements are very deficient, to make up for which nature has given him a goodly portion of cuming, which he uses to the best advantarge, often guilling those who make some pretensions in the literary and political worlds. In politics, he is of the Greeley Whig school, a Free Soil Scott man, strongly timutured with all the current issue. He called to see us a short time since, and in conversation went. Scott strong, nativelian, free scollism and whiggery. How he came to be dubbed Colonel we do not know, unless Greeley has given him that tile as leader of the Robinson regiment. That the Roott party are using him to injure. Frank Pierce, we have not the least doubt, but they have got hold of the wrong man. With all his cuming he has not the ability to hile the purposes for which he has been employed. We learn that Horneo Greeley purchased a farm for Haynes at a cost of §1000; this accounts for his willinguess to serve his enutes. UP COUNTRY LETTERS .- This is the title of a beautifally printed volume just issued by D. Appleton & Co., New York, and edited by Prof. , of the National Observatory, at Washngton. The letters as literary effusions, are light, pleasing and fall of glowing thoughts and ancies. The book is well worthy of being read and placed in a library. For sale by A. H.
