grant us this favor at the earliest moment? JOY TO THE WHIGS. The Gazette of yesterday announced that the whige of Illinois had found an Irishman who inended to vote for Scott, and has given his reasons for his folly. This Irishman must be a curiosity, and we would advise Barnum to catch him and "Haynes" and put them in a cage for exhibition. This article is rich, and so rich in falsehood that we must copy a portion of it. The writer purports to be an Irishman, and the editor avers that he is an "Irishman of considerable information." Listen to the way he talks:

information." Listen to the way he talks: He was, he said, stopping for the night, and was placed in a room with several others, two of whom were from the county (of Limerick, Ireland. They had that evening ab-tended a democratic meeting. Som after we were in our apartment, the closet of my country men asked me if I was not a democratic many country men asked me if I was not a democratic many of that I had been a whig for many years, though when I first came to America I was not, but as score as I was acqualated with the institutions of the country, the wants and interests of it, such as the protective That if, i.e., i.e., i was a whig. But we have not found it so, and as for Gen-eral Scott he is the man for us, and if we live we intend to vote for him for President in November next; for, sail he, it would be a cryingl shame to vote against a man, whose whole like has been devoted to his country's exvice, and by jist knowing him thoroughly we understand, the whole his-tory of this blessed country. And if it was not for the Lay-ders of one dimeratic party, and such men as those who ments at the office of the Assistant Treasurer of the U.S., at Philadelphia: tory of this blessed country. And if it was not on the info-ders of our dimocratic party, and such men as those who mot us on the ship at New York, we would vote for Gineral Scott smost entirely. But infortunately, some of our breth-ren from the ould countbry want firmness, they are afraid of being called a turn cost by simply voting for one of the Fathers of this bilesed America. But we are not all of that stripe. We are not afraid to meet those who would call us turn costs, and whigh, jist because we at this time prefer Gineral Scott to Gineral Pierce. uly 31. 1852-Balanc 31-Rec'ts Custom Post-office Money, Pension Fund,......

It is well known that but a few years since, Gen Scott was "fired with indignation" against them, when he sat down in his parlor in the Astor House. It is equally well known that more recently he hung a number of them in Mexico, who had joined the army, and we would now like to know what he intends to do with the countrymen of the poor fellows he executed, if he can persuade them to come under his imperious command? We have never heard that the fire of his in dignation' has been extinguished, and believe that the only modification he has made in his feelings towards Irishmen, is to suspend them at the end of a rope, instead of hanging them on the hooks of the market houses, as his Native American friends did in 1844.
