☞ The gross and unwarrantable attack that was made on the character of the senior Editor of this paper, by the Chronicle, of Tuesday—which was as false in its statements as it was malicious in its object,—will not be suffered to pass by with impunity.

HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD.

A letter from this gentleman on the subject of the charge of "Nativism," appears in our paper this morning. This will put the accusation at rest forever. Judge WOODWARD's upright life and unblemished character ought long ago to have taught his adversaries the lesson which the viper learned when he attempted to gnaw the file.—We doubt if such an attack would now have been ventured on by the Whigs, if they had not been over anxious to elect the founder of Nativism—General SCOTT. In their zeal to save the cause of that party which has ever been in alliance with Nativism, they are willing to commit any extravagance, and some of them are ready to be guilty of any baseness.

Judge WOODWARD was on the bench of the Common Pleas for ten years, and his whole judicial career was marked by ability, learning and honesty. Since he has been on the bench of the Supreme court, his behavior has won for him the confidence of all who witnessed it. It cannot be possible that any decent Whig can give his sanction to the falsehoods which are used to injure such a man. His whole life—his uniform professions—his speeches (so far as they are truly reported) in the convention—the continued confidence of the democracy—the constant vituperation of the Whigs and Natives; all these things show that he is in his own language no more a Native than he is a Whig, Antimason or Abolitionist.

Judge WOODWARD might have been Senator of the United States, if he had courted or combined with the Nativists; but he refused. Where is the Whig who would have done likewise? Where is the member of that party who has ever failed to take the Native vote in any contest either in the Legislature or at the polls?

We cannot better close this article than by copying Judge WOODWARD's speech against Nativism in the convention—a speech which repudiates utterly the imputation of Nativism in the face of the body where it is now asserted that he declared sentiments in favor of it:

"Mr. Woodward explained that he did not wish to be slandered by any reporter or misrepresented by any member on this floor, and he would not allow gentlemen to impute measures and sentiments to him which did not belong to him. He said he never did propose to exclude the foreigners now in the country from political privileges, nor those who should at any time hereafter come to the country. He presumed the gentleman alluded to an amendment offered by him in convention at Harrisburg, which proposed nothing more than an inquiry into the expediency of preventing foreigners who should arrive in the country after 1841 from voting and holding office. This was an amendment to a proposition made by the gentleman from Chester (Mr. Thomas,) suggesting an inquiry into the expediency of excluding foreigners altogether from our rights. The amount of it was to give the proposed inquiry a different direction from that proposed by the gentleman from Chester. The proposition of the gentleman from Chester being withdrawn, Mr. Woodward explained that he withdrew his amendment."

"The gentleman from the county (Mr. Earl) should have represented him correctly on this subject if he understood, it, and if he did not understand it, he should have informed himself before he spoke of it."

THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

T. J. Fox Alden has, for some time past, been following the Sheriff and Commissioners with charges which, if true, would be in nowise creditable to them. We know the Sheriff and Commissioners, and we cannot for a moment suppose that the charges made against them by Mr. Alden are founded in truth. Messrs. Mitchell, Boyles and King, are gentlemen who are considered above suspicion, and the card which they publish invites scrutany into their conduct. Can Mr. Alden show that they have not performed the part of faithful public servant? We think he cannot.

But in their subsequent publications, as more must necessarily follow, perhaps they can give the people some information about that scrip.—Mr. Magill wont explain the mystery, because he cannot do it with safety; the Gazette and Journal will not attempt it, for they now consider Magill a "dead cock in the pit," and they are both smelling after Barker for his printing, in case he should be elected. We, therefore, look to the Commissioners for a full explanation of this mixed up matter. They have the books at their command, and if they do not desire the election of Barker, it will be easy for them to show that Mr. Magill is in no manner responsible for the missing scrip—if such is the fact; and, for his sake, we would like to see the statement appear at an early day. Mr. Magill will say nothing; the organs of his party are dumb, because they think he will be defeated, and the people are still waiting to know how much they have been robbed of. Can the Commissioners answer?

Will the Commissioners speak to this? Of course, it is not incumbent upon them to do so; but, inasmuch as the whig candidate for sheriff has been placed in a very equivocal position on account of his association with the Commissioners' office, perhaps they could enlighten the people on the subject.

VERMONT.—Our namesake, the Boston Morning Post, says of Vermont: "The large democratic gain in the popular vote in Vermont (4000) indicates the accumulating power which will sweep away Scottism and Sewardism in November, as the tempest scatters the leaves of autumn, and which will restore the national administration to the hands of democracy by the election of PIERCE and KING. Honor to the Vermont democracy."

PUTNAM'S LIBRARY.—No. XIII of Putnam's Library, just issued, contains "SICILY—A Pilgrimage," by H. T. Tuckerman. Those who are fond of choice reading will surely purchase this volume. Its descriptions are truthful, graphic and poetical. For sale by Davison & Agnew, Market street.

☞ The letter of Judge WOODWARD, which we publish to day, is a triumphant refutation of the ridiculous charge of Nativism preferred against that distinguished Democrat and able jurist by the more reckless and unprincipled portion of the federal press. If more evidence were wanting to vindicate Judge W. from this wicked slander, we have it at hand in letters and speeches which were given to the country by that gentleman when he was not before the people as a candidate for any office. We have before us the Harrisburgh Keystone of Sept. 23, 1851, which contains a letter written by Judge WOODWARD to Mr. BEARDSLEE, editor of the Wayne County Herald, dated 6th September, 1851, some seven columns long, in reference to this same charge, which is one of the most able, clear and satisfactory documents we ever read. We shall hereafter, if it becomes necessary, publish extracts from this powerful letter.

The decent, respectable, and truth loving portion of the opposition press, has acted fairly and honorably towards Judge WOODWARD; but it is the reckless and unconscionable federal newspapers, like the Pittsburgh Gazette, that are endeavoring to lie down that gentleman. From these papers we may look for no correction of their malignant falsehoods in regard to Judge WOODWARD. They are incapable of doing an honorable act towards a political opponent. If we expose and nail one of their falsehoods, they are sure to trump up another equally as base and malignant:—

"Detect the sin, the sophistry in vain,
The creatures are at their dirty work again."

CHEERING FROM TENNESSEE.

Our exchanges from Tennessee bring us the most cheering tidings respecting the onward progress of Democratic principles in that State.—All the old orators of our party there have taken the stumps for PIERCE and KING, and are carrying on a vigorous and brilliant campaign. The Nashville Union states that the "signs of the times" indicate that Pierce will gain largely in East Tennessee. A correspondent of the Knoxville Plebian, describing a discussion between Hon. Barclay Martin and Mr. Bilbo, says:

"His time having expired, Colonel Martin then commenced his speech by saying that eight years ago he addressed us, and that Captain James Williams, the late editor of the Knoxville Post, replied to him in urging the people to vote for H. Clay, and now he was happy to announce that Capt. James Williams was with him for General Pierce, and that eight years ago, at Kingston, he made a speech and was replied to by William Williams, the brother of Capt. James Williams, and to-day Mr. William Williams stands against Gen. Scott.

The same correspondent also say:

"Mr. Taylor lives near this place, and I understand that he will not vote for General Scott under any circumstances. He is a good whig and he relates an incident that took place at his own house, that shows Gen. Scott to be a proud and haughty aristocrat and a tyrant. I understand that he says one night General Scott stopped at his house and his wife prepared a good supper for him, and because two or three Kentucky horse-dealers were there and sat down to supper with him he refused to eat. It was a gross insult to Mrs. Taylor.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATIONS.

The Democracy of Lancaster county have nominated Dr. N. W. SAMPLE for Congress.—This is an excellent choice, and the National Democracy of old Lancaster will respond to the choice by a largely increased vote.

A. T. BREWER, Esq., of Columbiana county, Ohio, has been nominated by the whigs of that district as their candidate for Congress.

Ex-Governor SHANNON is announced as a candidate for Congress in the Belmont district in Ohio. He would make an able member.

The Democracy of the Cleveland district, in Convention at Painsville, on Monday, nominated Gen. H. V. WILTON for Congress, by acclamation.

H. H. JOHNSON, Esq., of Ashland, has been nominated for Congress by the Democrats of the 14th district, in Ohio.

Horace Mann has sent a communication to the Dedham Democrat declining a re-election to Congress in Massachusetts.

The following nominations have been made in the counties named, viz: Adams, Joel B. Danner; Delaware, Dr. Andrew Murphy; Lawrence, Michael C. Trout; Warren, C. B. Curtis; Berks, Henry A. Muhlenberg; Mercer, Michael C. Trout; Venango, David Phelps; Bedford, Joel B. Danner; Philadelphia City, John Hamilton, Jr.; Lycoming, James Gamble.

IMPORTANT SUIT AND DECISION.—An important case was tried, a few days since, in the Circuit Court of Shenandoah county, Va. The Rockingham Register states that about a year since a gentleman, while going down the Valley, in a stage coach, belonging to Messrs. Parish, Harman & Co., was seriously injured by the upsetting of the coach. His leg was dreadfully broken, insomuch that he is made a cripple for life. He brought suit against the company, claiming damages to the amount of $10,000.—The jury in the case rendered a verdict for the plaintiff and assessed the damages at $9,000. This is the first case of the sort that has ever been tried in Virginia, and may be regarded as fixing the principle that in case of carelessness the proprietors of stage coaches are liable for damages in case of injury to the passengers.

LAND WARRANTS.—A rumor has obtained circulation in Wall street, New York, that a large amount of 160 acre Warrants have been issued, where the parties were really entitled to but 80 acres; and it is stated that the Department at Washington is now sending 80 acre Warrants to the same persons, and calling for the return of the 160 acre Warrants improperly issued. Previous to this rumor Warrants were heavy and declining, and this has had the effect to depress them still more. They are selling now from $146 to $150 for 160 acres; parts in proportion.

IMPORTANT RENUNCIATION.—Late last evening we received the able card of Hon. Daniel Jenifer, of Maryland, announcing his determination not to support General Scott for President on account of his affiliation with the fanatical influences of the North. Mr. Jenifer was a distinguished whig member of Congress from Maryland for a number of years, and was our late minister to Austria. This recantation is a highly significant event. We will publish his card in our next number.—Wash. Union, 12th.

ENORMOUS SUM PAID TO GEN. SCOTT.—From the official returns published in the Washington Union it appears that Gen. Scott has received from the United States treasury the enormous sum of $290,579 18 or about $7,000 a year, for forty years. If this be not fattening upon the public crib, we don't know what is. Scott had better retire and live upon his fortune. He has done enough for his country, and should be permitted to enjoy his ease in retirement.—Boston Times.

MORE EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS AT HAYTI.—Capt. Byard of the brig Lucy H. Chase, arrived at New York from Gonaives, reports that on the 28th ult. two shocks of earthquakes occurred there, which prostrated several small buildings and out-houses. He also states that much sickness prevails at the Cape and at Port au Prince.

MISSOURI SENATOR.—The Louisville Courier says that Col. Benton is authoritively announced as a candidate for the Senate of the United States in 1854, and sooner if Senator Geyer can be forced to resign by instructions from the Legislature.

WESTERN LAW JOURNAL.—The September number of this publication contains a review of the Wheeling Bridge Case, and other matter of interest to the legal fraternity. Cincinnati: Edited by T. Walker and M. E. Curwen.

WOODING UP.—J. Blickensderfer, Jr., Chief Engineer of the Steubenville and Indiana Railroad, advertises for 500 cords of good firewood to be delivered on the line of said Railroad.—Hurry up the steam, and let the cars start!

INTERESTING CORRESPONDENCE.

LETTER TO JUDGE WOODWARD.

HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD:

DEAR SIR:—The undersigned members of the Democratic party beg leave to call your attention to certain charges now frequently made by the Whig presses, against you, in regard to your views upon the naturalization laws, and alleged hostility to the rights of naturalized citizens. We are aware that you may justly regard your life and conduct in the high station you have occupied, and the boundless confidence of the Democratic party, which you enjoy, as a sufficient answer to such calumnies.

But, the charges are intended to operate on and mislead persons to whom the truth is unknown. We would, therefore, solicit from you an expression of your views on the subject, if your time will permit, not doubting that every candid mind will thus be satisfied, that by no act of your life have you been justly chargeable with having entertained men or measures favoring illiberal or proscriptive policy towards adopted citizens on account of the place of their birth or their religious opinions.

Very respectfully, yours, &c.

JUDGE WOODWARD'S REPLY.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 14, 1852

Gentlemen:—The official duties which brought me to Pittsburgh, keep me constantly engaged. My answer to your letter must, therefore, be brief.

From my earliest youth to this present moment, I have been an earnest and hearty supporter of the Democratic Party, and an equally zealous opponent, so far as my political action could decorously and properly go, of whatever has opposed it. I am not and never have been a "Native American," in any political sense, any more than I am or have been a whig, antimason or an abolitionist.

The charge of "Nativism" is attempted to be sustained by a motion which I made in the Reform Convention of 1837. That was simply a limitation of a motion made by Mr. Thomas, a whig member from Chester county, and was calculated to compel his party (who were in majority in the Convention) to come up to the mark or back out. They chose the latter branch of the alternative, and my motion having answered its purpose, was withdrawn. The sin of introducing this subject into that body lies at the door of a whig and not at mine.

The speech so often quoted against me, I am not responsible for. It was introduced into the Debates by a Whig Reporter in violation of the rules of the body which required him to submit it for revision before publication, and which he never did. I made some observations explanatory of my amendment of Thomas' motion, but that speech is not a fair report of them. My other speeches were submitted for revision.—This one I never saw till the book was printed, and I have never ceased to condemn it.

During the session of the Convention, namely on the 10th day of January, 1838, a member in debate alluded to the motion, not the speech, as indicative of hostility to foreigners. I promptly denounced the imputation, there in the face of the Convention, as I have done many a time since, as a gross misrepresentation.

See Debates of the Convention, vol. 10, p. p. 33–34.

I have retained the undiminished confidence of the democratic members of the Reform Convention, several of whom were adopted citizens, and all of them opposed to Nativism. Would this have been possible if the whig reports of my sayings and doings had been true?

The Native American Party itself is my witness. Seven years ago I was the caucus nominee for U. S. Senator. The County of Philadelphia was represented by Natives. They asked me whether, if elected by their votes, I would favor their measures for changing the naturalization laws. I answered them no, and they threw every vote they could command against me, and raised a shout of triumph over their victory.

You refer to statements in the whig papers of this city. One of them was shown me a few days ago, in which was a garbled extract from a letter written by me about a year ago, in which I repelled the imputation of Nativism as distinctly as I deny it now. Yet the Editor told his readers that the letter contains an admission that my sentiments were at that time adverse to the rights of foreign born citizens. A copy of the letter thus misrepresented by the Pittsburgh Gazette, I send you herewith in the "Keystone" of Sept. 23, 1851.

When men will allow their political passions to get the better of their veracity so far as to impel them to acts and assertions like this, it is easy enough to understand how and why I was misrepresented by a Reporter of the Convention, whose motives for doing so were just as strong as those which actuate my political opponents now.

Another allegation, that I opposed Judge Campbell last fall, is as false as any other of the numerous misstatements recently made against me. I never opposed any nominee on account of his birth or religion, and I supported no nominee last fall more heartily than I did Judge Campbell.

It is with infinite reluctance I appear before the public at this time even in self-defence. A candidate for a judicial office is, perhaps, more than any other candidate, required to await quietly the decision of the people. I am assensible as any man can be, that politics ought to be kept away as far as possible from judicial elections, but the terms of your letter leave me no choice but to answer. I have answered by giving you briefly the truth. I give it because it is the truth, and I accompany it with no appeal to party passion or prejudice.

If industrious defamation can succeed in representing me as having ever sustained any illiberal or proscriptive ism, then the Truth and a Life are powerless against slander.

There are some presses, and many men opposed to me in political sentiments, who are disposed to treat me fairly, and who will not descend to base appliances to accomplish a party purpose. Such men and presses command my respect.—Against others who are less scrupulous, I have no shield but the truth and my life, and relying on these, I can afford to await, in patience, the verdict of the people.

Thanking you, gentlemen, for the kind feelings manifested in your letter, I am, with great respect,

Your obt. serv't,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

SPIRIT RAPPERS.—At the little town of Buckhannon, Upsher county, Va., where the court wouldn' allow grocery licenses, they have had the spirit rappers going it. The modes operandi was to go to a certain house in Buckhannon, give three raps upon a plank partition, and say —"If there are any good spirits present, they will please manifest themselves." Quick as thought a box presented itself through an aperture in the partition, not before seen, into which the person calling, dropped a five or ten cent piece, when the box disappeared and again manifested itself with a tumbler of spirits.

Items of News and Miscellany.

It is said that a farmer of Princess Anne county, Va., during the past season realized from eight acres near eleven hundred dollars, and he has pitched on the same land a second crop, which will probably bring him five or six hundred dollars more.

The Boston Transcript says that Rev. George M. Randall, Rector of the Church of the Messiah, and Rev. Dr. Vinton, of St. Paul's church in that city, are prominent candidates to supply the vacancy occasioned by the death of Bishop Henshaw.

The Boston Daily Advertiser contains a call, with at least three thousand names attached, for a meeting at Faneuil Hall, on the 16th inst., to nominate an electoral ticket to support Daniel Webster for the Presidency. The town of Newburyport has appointed fifty delegates.

The Chambersburgh, Pa., Whig of Wednesday states that 52 deaths have occurred since the first appearance of Cholera in that place. A number of deaths had also occurred in the surrounding neighborhood. At the Poor House, 8 had died, and 6 or 7 in the village of Marion. The disease is now subsiding.

Jas. H. Cassidy sentenced to be hung for murder at St. Louis, but whose sentence was commuted died in the penitentiary last week.

Mr. Green, a native of Annapolis, Md., has been nominated for re-election to Congress from the Seneca district in Ohio.

On Tuesday the Hon. Malcolm Cameron introduced a bill in the Assembly, prohibiting the manufacture, importation, or sale of intoxicating liquors, in the province of Canada.

Crist, who was lately hung at Mobile, confessed himself guilty of forgery in Ohio.

The Native Americans of the Salem districts N. J., have nominated Jos. Franklin, for Congress.

During August, the receipts of the Columbia (Pa.) Railroad amounted to $39,869.

Messrs. Jenkins and Whaley fought a duel at Savannah last Wednesday. Two shots were exchanged, and no damage done.

The Native Americans of Philadelphia have nominated Col. J. S. Warner for Mayor.

The Bateman children made their first appearance in New York, since their return from Europe, on Thursday evening.

The receipts of the Cleveland, Columbus and Cincinnati railroad for August, exceeded those of July, by $6,954.

The Democrats of Lancaster county, Pa. have nominated Dr. N. W. Sample for Congress, and Hon. Emanuel Schaeffer, Saunders McCulloch, Jacob R. Long, Cyrus S. Haldeman and Jacob L. Gross for the Assembly.

A woman, 33 years of age is now living at Liege, in Belgium, who has had during nine years, 24 children, who are all in good health, and of the female sex.

M. Merchand-Eanery, grand rabbi of the central consistory of the Jews of France, died on the 21st of August.

George O'Donnell, John Jones, R. B. Armstrong and Elisha Forrest, four of the seamen of the brig Sarah Nash, have been convicted of mutiny in Philadelphia.

The candidates named for Lieutenant Governor of New York, by the whigs, are Daniel Lord, Judge Kent, Henry E. Davies and Erastus Brooks.

M'lle. Camille Urso, a violinist, only 11 years of age, is expected to arrive at New York from Europe in the Humboldt.

The trial of Major Howe, at Litchfield, Conn., for the attempted murder of Miss Buck, has resulted in a verdict of guilty.

The Norfolk Argus says an Agricultural Fair will be held at Hampsville, Princess Anne county, Va., on the 22d and 23d of November.

Van Amburgh & Raymond's circus was recently robbed of $1,700, at Warrenton, Mo., by one of its employers.

JUDGE WOODWARD.

The Ledger of Saturday morning speaks of the support which Judge Woodward has received and is receiving from Attorney General Ex Judge Campbell, and further states that the peculiar friends of Judge Woodward were the very individuals who combined to defeat Judge Campbell last fall. A more unfounded falsehood was never uttered, and the writer for the Ledger must have known so when he penned it. Every man who knows anything of the politics of the State, which this writer evidently does, must know that the very men who defeated Judge Woodward as United States Senator, and who caused his rejection by the United States Senate, were those by whom the election of Judge Campbell were brought about. The enemies of Judge Woodward were the enemies of Judge Campbell, and his friends united and labored for the election of Judge Campbell. Mr. Simon Cameron, as our readers will recollect, was elected United States Senator, by the Democratic members of the House and Senate had designed for Judge Woodward, by the votes of a few recreant Democrats and the whole body of Whig and Native members. After he had thus treacherously and in violation of all the usages and principles of the party, been elected to that station, a place for which he was wholly unfitted, Judge Woodward's nomination for Judge of the Supreme Court of the United States by that great and good man President Polk, came before the U. S. Senate, and it was principally by the acts and practices of Mr. Cameron that the confirmation was not confirmed. The shameful practices of the same gentleman last fall contributed in a very great degree to the defeat of Judge Campbell. These facts must have been in the knowledge of the writer for the Ledger, whom we must characterize as a deliberate and wilful falsifyer of the truth.

Judge Campbell has labored and will continue to labor to secure the election of Judge Woodward. We know that he esteems him as one of the most pure and upright of men, and one of the ablest jurists in the country—so far from Judge Woodward or his friends conspiring to defeat Judge Campbell, we know and Judge Campbell and all his friends know, that his voice was raised in the North, in the East, and in every other part of the State in favor of his election. The question of religion, which was introduced into the contest by the enemies of Judge Campbell, was everywhere met and most truthfully and eloquently answered by Judge Woodward and Judge Campbell. Apart from the duty which he owes his party, he would be false to every feeling of his nature, if he did not labor night and day to secure the election of Judge Woodward. This we know he has done and will continue to do, until the ballots on the second Tuesday of October proclaim him elected.—Pennsylvanian.

Storm on Lake Erie.

We clip the following from the Cleveland Plaindealer of Monday:

"Saturday evening we had a heavy rain, and on Sunday frequent showers during the day, accompanied by a very heavy wind in fact it blew a perfect hurricane, and shipping must have suffered to a considerable extent.

The Buckeye State experienced a heavy sea coming up from Buffalo and sustained some damage to her wheelhouses.

The schooner Isabella capsized about 40 miles distant from this place. The crew escaped in the yawl and came safe to this port.

The steamer Forest City broke her rudder while turning in the river and becoming unmanageable sustained some further loss.

The steamer John Hollister, propeller Oswego, and bark Forest City put in at Black River and remained during the storm.

A scow, supposed to be the St. Louis, and a schooner, name not known, went ashore about a mile and a half west of here, the scow going clear over the spiles. We understand there were no lives lost.

These were the only instances of the storm we have heard up to this time."

☞ Rev. Mr. Drummond, a minister of Lewiston, Me., in an account of the commencement exercises at Bowdoin, in the Lewiston Falls Journal, thus speaks of Gen. PIERCE:—

"Among the speakers was Gen. Pierce, the candidate for the Presidency. He is a man of good countenance and pleasant address, and made a brief and very acceptable speech. He, as a matter of course, was the observed of all observers, and bore the scrutiny quite unconsciously. On one point we feel quite sure—it is this, that he is not a man of intemperate habits, as he is reported to be. If he is, his countenance betrays no signs of it. We should take him to be a kind and amiable man, of very good powers. dare say he will make a very respectable President. We hope so, both for his own, his country's, and old Bowdoin's sake."

For the Daily Morning Post.

The Second Ward Market House.

MESSRS. EDITORS: The Councils have appropriated money to repair the Scotch Hill Market House, and put it, once more, in first rate condition, and the workmen are now employed upon it. It will be ready for use in a few days, and there will be crowds of buyers, if there should be any marketing to sell. Is there no way to induce the farmers, butchers, and market gardeners, to bring their merchandize to the Scotch Hill Market House? They will soon have a comfortable and convenient place to do business, with room enough (on the old market house site) for their vehicles. There are hundreds of householders living in that section of the city, who will pledge themselves to make their purchases at this market, if the articles can be found there for sale. We trust that portions, at least, of both buyers and sellers are sufficiently tired of being pulled and hauled, and crowded and jammed, and bruised and battered, and smashed and smeared with apple-butter and molasses, and greased with fallow, and besmeared with fish and broken eggs—all owing to the want of room in the Diamond market—to make a decided effort to come out from that foul locality and try the Scotch Hill Market House. One, if not both, of you, Messrs. Editors, from the situation of your dwellings, are interested in this "Reform," and the people, who are anxious to see it carried forward, will be obliged to you for "aid and comfort." We suggest that a paper, signed by citizens who would like to buy at the Scotch Hill Market, should be printed and circulated through the country, inviting farmers, gardeners, butchers, &c., to come there with their merchandize, and pledging the signers to buy their marketing there. Will you give the matter some attention?

Among the old women of both sexes who are now sitting in convention at Syracuse on "woman's rights," the Rev. Mrs. Palmita appears to be the wag of the ring. As a specimen of her logical wit, we take the following good bit:

"Mrs. Palmita had preached the risen Saviour fifteen years. A preacher had told her that woman was the wickedest. A rib taken from man was formed into woman, and was accepted as bone of his bone and flesh of his flesh. If one rib was so wicked, what a mass of wickedness the whole man must be!" (Convulsions of laughter.)

☞ SUCCESSFUL TRIAL OF THE FIRE ANNIHILATOR.—Drs. Colton and Boynton made their second experiment with the Fire Annihilator, at Utica, N. Y., on Friday evening, with triumphant success. A large quantity of tar barrels and other highly combustible materials were placed within the building and fired. The Annihilator was not applied until the whole interior was ignited, and the flames were bursting from the opening, but every particle was apparently extinguished almost instantaneously.

McLane's Liver Pills,

Have now become the great Specific for Hepatic or derangement of the liver, in its most complicated forms—This medicine has done an immense amount of good in curing this fearful disease, so common throughout the United States, and as evidence of its efficacy, we will state that it is superseding every other remedy. The demand for this certain cure is unprecedented. Orders for it are coming in from all quarters, and every mail brings something of the following tenor:—

CARMINGO, Ohio, Jan. 1851.

Messrs. J. Kidd & Co.—We are nearly out of M'Lane's Pills, it would be well to keep us supplied, as there is a great demand for them in our place.

Political Economy.

IF you can purchase home manufactured articles, as well adapted to the use designed, as good in material, and better work, than foreign work, do it. Fifty per cent. of your money must stay here, and be spent in your midst. Call at GOTHIC HALL, and examine the fall stock of BOYS' CLOTHING—embracing 1200 suits, suitable for Boys 3½ years old, and upwards—manufactured in this city, under the proprietor's immediate supervision. WE STUDY TO PLEASE. CHESTER, 74 Wood street. sep16

"The Guerilla, or The Romance of War," is the title of a new Book just published, in New York, and for sale at MINERS, No. 52 Smithfield street. The incidents throughout are of the most exciting nature, extending in their range, from the field of battle, and the adventures among Guerilla bandits, to the Police, where the antes of war are hushed by those of love. The work throut displays a master hand.

Another excellent Book just published, and also for sale at H. MINER & Co.'s Book Store, is entitled "Heads and Hearts, or My Brother, the Colonel." It is written by an author of much celebrity, and will be found highly interesting. sep16

GRAND PANORAMA OF IRELAND,

AT PHILO HALL,

COMMENCING FRIDAY EVENING, SEPT. 17th, AND every night, and WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY AFTERNOONS, at 3 o'clock. This magnificent and exquisitely finished work of art has been pronounced by the most celebrated artists a vivid and lifelike picture of the Emerald Isle. Grandeur, beauty and interest, city and solitude, mountain, lake and wood; the stately edifices of to-day, and the mighty ruins that attest the glory of the past, are vividly pictured.

A complete music on each occasion. Henry D. O'Reilly, the Orator and Humorist, will give the oral sketches of Ireland magnificent scenery.

☞ Doors open at 7, to begin at 8. sep16:td

INDIA RUBBER GLOVES, MITTENS, &c., COUNTRY MERCHANTS, in making their purchases of shoes, should not neglect these desirable and saleable articles, their manufacture has been much improved recently, and they are made very durable. Particular attention is requested to the WOOL LINED GLOVES AND MITTENS—they are indispensable in cold and wet weather. Ladies will find these Gloves useful in any work that will soil the hands, as the stain that they will cure the worst Salt Rheum or Chapped Hands immediately. They are made all lengths, for ladies' and misses' wear.

For sale by Bowen & M'Namee, New York; Morrows & Towne, Boston; John Thornley, Philadelphia; R. M. Pattenson & Co., Baltimore; Gill & Brother, St. Louis; Hart & Hickox, Cincinnati, and by all Rubber Dealers in the Union. DAVISON & AGNEW, sep9 63 Market st., near Fourth.

☞ In the late fire at San Francisco, we notice a large quantity of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral burned, in the possession of one of the Druggists of that city. Gold will not control disease, and even in that Ophir country they must provide this best of all remedies for colds, coughs and affections of the lungs. Indeed, we happen to know that it is an almost indispensable companion of the muleteers and miners, who are so much and so continually exposed to the ever-changing atmosphere of that climate. sep1

For sale by all the Druggists in Pittsburgh. [au27:d&w

☞ Mechanical Remedies—Under this head we designate a number of articles that have been introduced lately for the purpose of relieving certain diseases and deformities, that cannot be reached by the application of medicines proper. Among the most important of these, are—SHOULDER BRACES—the object of which is to cure stooping shoulders, a habit of leaning forward, hollow and flat chest, and very frequently removes a tendency to diseases of the Pulmonary organs, dependent on these dispositions.—These Braces are strong, well made, and adapted to the use of ladies, misses, boys and men. The Gentleman's Brace is formed in such a way as to answer the double purpose of a Brace and suspenders, and at a price very little above the price of suspenders. The public may rely on these Braces, as being what they are represented; many persons of weak and hollow chests have been completely cured, and, in some cases, the circumference of the chest increased as much as four inches—thus giving to the Lungs a fuller action, and consequently adding to the general health and strength of the body.
