In an article which appeared in the Post, o the 23d inst., we made the following assertion "No man has ever offered so high a price for the office of President of the United State as Gen. Winfield Scott. He has offered to destroy and blast every hope of the foreigner from ever enjoying the blessings of a citizenship in this free land." To this Deagon White, the editor of the Putsburgh Gazette, a gentleman who is notorious for his opposition to foreigners; especially, those who adhere to the Catholic religion, says: " Now if the fact was not before him who could believe that may paper possessed of the least character for respectability, and with any regard for truth, mould have uttered so barefaced a falsehood, &c. Knowing Mr. White, of the Gazette, as we do, to be unscrupulous and dishonest in his course as an editor, we would be content to leave unnoticed his empty denial of the truth we asserted; but, as it is a subject in which we may say the whole human family is greatly interested, particularly that portion whose fortune, or misfortangit is, to owe their birth to foreign climes, we deem it advisable to say a few words in vineasy for men to make assertions, and it is as easy to make denials; but we will have the Gasette man to understand that when we make an assertion we hold ourselves bound and in readiand now we will prove it from the publicly de- ing. as warmly as did the remark attributed to clared principles of Winfield Scott. The day after the election I started for the South, and have never known why our oppeal was not published. Probably the election of General Harrison rendered its publication at that time unnecessary in the opinion of my two friends. I now hesitate in extending the period of residence before naturalization, and a total repeat of all acts of Congress on the subject; MY MIND INCLINES TO THE LATTER." Gen. Scott had slightly modified his views in regard to the policy of admitting men of other countries to the right of citizenship, and said : "That if elected, he will propose an alteration in our naturalization laws, so that a foreigner may, by humbling himself, become a citizen, if he will enter the army as a private soldier, and fight a year. Now, we re-assert that Gen. Scott did advocate such a change in our naturalization laws in a series of articles which appeared in the National Intelligencer, over the signature of "AMERICUS." He recommended the immediate repeal of all naturalization laws, and the enactcertain time in the Army or Navy.

Hence we said, and have here proved, that "He very silliest kind at that. We can only wonder esting. that any man of sense can now be so crazy as to contend for the superiority of Gen. Scott's qualifications for President. We will venture to say that no country justice could be scared up, who could not make a more respectable speech than the above. We shall believe before long to impress upon the public mind that he had opthe assertion of Greeley, in 1840, that "Gen. Scott is a valu, conceited coxcomb, with more epaulettes than braics." He says he is traveling for the purpose of selecting a site for a Military Hospital; from present indications, he ought to be the first candidate for admission. But it appears that the only portion of our citizens of foreign birth, with which Gen. Boots has fallen desperately in love, are the natives of Ireland. He is, certainly aware that we have dication of the truth of our declaration.
