M'Iane dreaded being classed with the shallow prefenders who crowd the columns of the newspapers with puffs of sovereign remedies," and for a long time declined the requests of many that he would preclaim his great remedy to the pable; but, finally, after much persuasion on the part of physicians and others, who had witnessed the wometrial cures effected by the Liver Pills, he consented to prepare it for general use. The following certificate, from Dr. Morgan, will bear us out in this statement; it is also valuable as medical testimony of the efficacy of these Pills:—

"This is to certify that I have been associated with Dr. Mane, in the practice of medicine, for nearly two years and a half. I have had many opportunities of winnessing the good effects of his Liver Pill; and I believe they have cured and relived a much larger proportion of the diseases of the Liver, than I have known cured and relived by any other course of treatment.
