THE CITY POST THURSDAY MORNING.......OCTOBER 21 Annie occurred on Tuesday, afternoon last, at the house After Jana Taylor, in an alley near Arthurs street, in the Sevenith Wind. The affray took place between James Ir and John Cavan, at about fire o'clock in the afternoon o. Thesday. The two were drinking whisky together in an up stairs room, of Mrs. Taylor's house; and while partially in toxicated got into a dispute which was ended by Irwin knocking Cavan down, with a fireman's spanner. Cava was hit on the head by Irwin, and as the physicians testife there is no hope of his recovery; the would being very ascape the vigilance of Ald. Major, of the Sixth Ward, who day arrested Irwin in a house of ill fame, known a hee, on Prospect street. In an examina was elicited from William Taylor, son of Jane Taylor, at talin Civen and James Irwin were un stairs, at my moth John, a child. I heard a foss between James Irwin and John Cayan. I heard a fall and went up stairs: John Cayan was ing neatnet the door bleeding. James Irwin was standing with a fireman's spanner in his hand. There was a bottle of whisky on the mantle-piece. John Cavan is now lying at A second deposition was taken afterwards. It was as folation took place in my mother's house, after Cavan of hurt. Cavan, at this time, was gotting his face washed. win and myself were up stairs setting at the fire. John Other winesses (living next door) testified that they had eard a disturbance during the afternoon, and also heard arms cry murder, about five o'clock—the time he was wounded by Irwin. The lad who was in the room at the time, and who is quite young, stated that while drinking the two got into an alterestion, and that Irwin hit Cavan with Alderman disjor committed Irwin for a further hearing cafes mail, near Beatty's station, on the Pen Railroad, in July last, of a large sum of money. The Grand Jury returned, on Tuesday last, six bills against Campbell, my him with the robbery of six different packages The prisoner on being placed in the dock, pleaded guilty to one of the charges. Preparatory to the Court passing sentence, Col. Black, the Counsel for the prisoner, asked perriner good character. No objection being made, Col. Marchand, of Greensburg, was called to the stand. He stated pointed to the wife and children of Campbell, who were in the Court House, and stated that they were wholly dependant upon the prisoner for their livelihood; he begged the Judge to not mereifally towards him, in view of his penitence and Judge Lavin, in passion.

Judge Lavin, in passion Judge Invin, in passing sentence upon Campbell, states breat enormity, and but for the mitigating circumstances which had been brought to the notice of the Court by his rescribed by the law, which was ten years, but lighest term prescribed by the law, which was ten years, but or account of his former good character he would sentence he prisoner to two years imprisonment at hard labor in the Yestern Pentientiary—the smallest term allowable.

A noile prus. was then entered by the counsel for the Uni-I States on the five other indictments against Campbell. The prisoner was remanded to the custody of the United re Judge Irvin, yesternay afternoon, after the disposal of is great mail rubbery case of United States vs. Campbell, in Rice, a lad about sixteen years of age, was arraigned robbing the mail of which he was a carrier in Green Co. ndent was charged with purloining from the mail in last a $20 note, which had been mailed in Waynesburg, only isstance, when had been mailed in Waynesburg,

M. Morris, Green county. John Pelan testified that he infled a letter containing the note directed to the post masrat Mr. Morris, Mr. Alison, post master at Waynesburg, stified that he received the letter, deposited it in the vill bag, and delivered the bag into the hands of the carrier e. The post master at Mt. Morris stated that he had nev is officer who arrested him. This confession was given Rice on the strength of a promise given him, that he ould go clear of the law; he also confessed where he had ted the money, which was found. The evidence was obnd John H. The which he offers to Amazeurs and Poulterers, this which he offers to Amazeurs and Poulterers, this Fail. He invites attention to his extensive Poultry yard, in East Liberty. His Fowls have been bred with the greatest care; and gentlemen who desire to obtain thorough bred Fowls, in their purity, can depend upon getting some superior specimens of young stock, on application, by letter or otherwise, of the following varieties:—Chittagong, Royal Cochin China, Hong Kong or Elack Chinese, Red. Buff and White Shanghase, of the celebrated Marsh, White and Balley importations; Brahma Pootra (India) a grey fowl, very large and much admired; forest Hoang-Ho, glossy black, with deep orange colored rump and neck backles, of great size and beauty; Wild India, African Bantams, and other very choice varieties.
