The Presidential Election will take lace on the Second day of November, LIFE OF FRANKLIN PIERCE.

We acknowledge our indebtedness to Col. Jour W. FORNEY, Clerk of the House of Representa tives at Washington, for a copy of the Life of Franklin Pierce, by Nathaniel Hawthorne, published by Tickner, Reed & Fields, Boston. There is no man living who is better qualified for the task of writing the Life of Gen. Prence than Mr. HAWTHORNE. They were school-mates together, and a close intimacy has always existed between them. The volume contains 144 pages, is beautifully printed, and is embellished with a fine line engraving of the next President of the United States.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING. TURN OUT OF THE DEMOCRACY. There was a very large turn out of the De-obedience to a call which had been issued during the day. The spacious yard was nearly filled with enthusiastic, eager Democrats. The meeting was called to order by appoint in r Patrick M'Kenna, Esq., President. The following Vice Presidents and Secretaries were appointed: Samuel Fleming, George A. Kurtz, Henry Rea, and John Watt.

Secretaries-William D. Hamilton and John A.

which were listened to with great attention-stfention which the Judge always attracts when speaking. Captain A. Day, a soldier of the Mexican War. was next introduced to the meeting. He made a most eloquent address, vindicating General Pierce's conduct in Mexico, and showing the utter absurdity of whig politicians making capital out of the Mexican War-a measure which they had opposed to their death, as a damning crime and national disgrace. Capt. D's. speech was so

Mr. Fuller, of Fayette county, was introduce to the meeting by the President. Mr. F., in his speech, entered into the details of our system of government, and showed the utter unfitness of a man who had spent his life in camps to fulfil the duties of Chief Magistrate of our country. The speaker paid considerable attention to General Scott's views in regard to our adopted citizens. By the plank, which Gen. S. had laid down, for-

Long before the appointed hour, large numbers of the De. moorney had assembled, and were impatiently awaiting the event. Every preparation was made to insure speed and safety in the work, and in a brief space of time, amid the enthusiastic cheers of the assemblage, the lofty hickory was firmly planted in the ground.

It having been previously announced that sevaddress the meeting, some impatience was manifested, which did not cease until Lecky Harpen, Esq., senior editor of the Post, briefly ac the meeting from a window, thanking those pre-sent for their kindness in assisting in the work just completed. THE ALLEGHENY DELEGATION.

The last number of the Greensburgh Argus ontains a long editorial in relation to the Allegheny delegation to the great Democratic Convention in that ancient Borough in which quite a number of our Democratic fellow citizens are highly complimented. We copy that portion of the article which relates to that good old Democrat, Judge Wilkins. "But the most interesting member of the Allegheny delegation, and one whose appearance everywhere excited respect and enthusiasm," remarks the Argus, "was that venerable patriarch, the Hon. Those having a dread of mixtures are assured that this medicine is purely natural, and is bottled as it flows from the bosom of the earth.

The following certificate is copied from a paper published at Syracus, N. Y., and bears date August 2, 1852, to which is also appeaded the certificate of the celebrated D. Y. Foot, M. D., also appended the criticate of the celebrated D. V. Poot, M. D., of Spracess:

A clergyment, who had been accused of preaching long segmons, excused himself, on the ground that the church was a large one.

A salute of 31 guns was fired at York, Pa., hast Friday night, by the democrats, in honor of their success at the late elections.
