STRANDOAT ROBERRIES are all the rage down the river a resent. From the Louisvillo papers, we learn that a gen Jeman unmed Fisk, a passenger on the steamer Forest City, was robbed of about $20,000, while the boat was wooding at Wabash Island. The passengers were all searched, nothing was found upon them, or in their baggage Consierable excitement prevailed, and some doubt existed in the ninds of the passengers, as to whether he lost the money o not. Fish went on board the boat at Louisville. Tar Election yesterday passed off very quietly, as far a
