The holl and cabin of said boat is entirely new, and has been built with a special reference to the present trip; and as it was anticipated that there would be a large number of passengers on the trip, she has been built large and commodious. The machinery has been transferred from the old "Taylor Republican;" and is the same that propelled that craft with such unprecedented speed to the city of Washington in 1848. She will be commanded by that old and experienced officer, Captain Scott, who never lost a trip, nor never fainted before the "rich Irish brogue," or the "sweet German accent." The Mate, for the present trip, is W. A. Graham, "well-known to the country as the inventor of the celebrated lightem's bread;" and as the man who spoke and woted against "the tariff of '42," The popular Steersman, W. H. Seward, is engaged as Pilot for the trip: assisted by the ever faithful James C. Jones, of Tennessee, known to be so devoted to party that he is "no man's man; but a Wing man." The Chief Engineer is the inimitable Horace Greeley, well known to the public as Asalstant Engineer on board the "Foerierist," the "Spiritual Rapper," and various other craft that have been plying in the dominions of Old Uncle Sam for several years past; and he will be assisted by Mai Leslie Combs and Johnston, who have attained some little notoriety recently, as nssistant managers of the Gas Works used in generating gas for lighting up the camp of a certain army of office holders and office seekers, who have been invading the country under the head of the man who "never lost a battle."-

The daties of Steward will be attended to by Mr. Crawford; assisted by the Galphins and Gardpers, wall known for their assiduous labors for many years past, in endeavoring to relieve Uncle Sam's treasury of any surplus funds with which the "vote-yourself-a farm glee club" have been engaged for the trip, who will enliven the scene with "the free soil ball is rolling on," and various other longs appropriate to the occasion.

Below we give all the returns received up t the time of going to piess.

Allegheny county has done pretty well, but not as well as we expected. Considering the general defection we cannot complain: General Scott's majority will be about 2,500, as far as we can judge from the returns received.

When we look abroad we meet with nothing but disasters. Pennsylvania, New York and Ohio, the three great central States, have gone by the board. Massachusets, that old Gibralter of Whiggery, shows signs of surrendering. Con-nectiont and Maine vote for Locofoccism; and even Vermont, if we credit the telegraph, has faltered, and possibly fallen. Little Delawar follows the example of her powerful sister, an Maryland has arranged herself alongside of the Old Dominion, and has gone for Pierce and King and Virginia abstractions. The only cheering news is from Tennessee, where the furore for Pierce and British policy has not reached— Scott may carry Tennessee,—a result as honor-able to Scott as to the State. She has evinced able to Scott as to the State. She has evinced ther appropriation of true greatness amidat the general and shameful ingratitude.

The result of the whole is, that Pierce and King are elected by an overwhelming majority, protection to American manufactures and improvement of rivers and harbors, have been repudiated, and the Fillibuster Manifest Desting of the country has been approved. Po the country we mourn. With Gen. Scott we sympathize, but history will do him that justice which his fellow citizens, on whom he has shed so much glory, have denied him. The Presidency could not honor him, but he could have to the lot of his less deserving competitor. We have given the telegraphic despatches as they have reached us—full of confusion and Enough can be learned from them lowever, to arrive at the result we have stated

WHIG PRAUD DISCOVERED. Yesterday, a most villainous fraud was dis vered by our neighbor, J. G. BACKOVER, of the Courier. While at the polls in the Third Ward, littsburgh, a German called him aside to make o store of Mr. Kunn, where the German produced a certificate of naturalization signed G W. None of the Gernans had a legal right to vote, as they were ony 4 to 41 years in the United States, or had taken their first naturalization papers on two years. They were first taken to John Hampton, Esq.'s office on Fourth street, where they received a slip of paper directed to the Prothonotary. with nothing on it but "all right." At the Prohonotary's office, they were taken in the Court loom, but not sworn nor voucher produced, and then they had to go to Marshall's office on Fifth street, where they received the naturalization paper with a tax receipt, and the advise to de-stroy the papers after they had given their votes. Both papers were given free, and one of the Germans received from John Hampton, Esq., one dollar to treat his friends and bring as many to the polls as possible. Estimate of Fashionable Happiness. The Duchess of St. Albans was a fascinating actrees, of good common sense, who married, first a banker and then a duke. She had seen poverty in the most trying as well as the more tolerable of its shapes, and was well prepared to judge of high life by comparison. She thus spoke of it in her memoirs: "Few persons have seen so much of the various aspects—I may say extremes—of life as my-self; and few therefore, can be better judges of the difference between great poverty and great wealth; but, after all, this does not by any means constitute the chief and most important distinc-tion between high and low states. No. 95 Fourth street. made from necessity—and at those epochs of transition when, side by side with so many elements of prosperity, so many causes of death also germinate, we may well say with truth, cursed he he who shall be the first to give the sig-nal in Europe of a coalition, the consequence of which would be incalculable. I admit, however, make. I desire as he did to conquer by con ciliation dissident parties, and to bring back into the current of the great popular streams those hostile rivulets which run to nothing without profit for any one.

I desire to conquer by religion, be morality, by prosperity, that yet numerous population which, in the midst of a country of faith and belief, scarcely knows the precepts of Christ-which, in the middle of the most fertile country in the world, can scarcely enjoy much of the of the earth as the first necessity renires. [Sensation.] We have immense unc tivated territories to clear, roads to make, ports to deepen, rivers to render navigable, canals to finish, our network of railways to complete. to deepen, rivers to render navigable, canals to finish, our network of railways to complete.
