FORGED NATURALIZATION PAPERS. Considerable excitement was created yesterday, by developments made in regard to forged naturalization papers, which had been furnished a number of persons in no way entitled to them, on consideration of their voting for General Scott. An information was laid at the Mayor's office, in the afternoon of yesterday, by a German named Gotleib F. Graham, who, though in the country but three years, had been furnished with a regular certificate of naturalization, with the seal of the Prothonotary's office affixed, and farnished Graham, without his taking the oath of allogiance in open court, as the law provides. In yesterday morning's paper, the fact that
