There they found many people at work, all using the common rocker, and thinking they were doing well if they made from ne dollar to twenty shillings per day. The par-y built a long tom, paid $7,50 per month for a license for each man, and went to work, making $3,75 the first day, $1 the second, and for two It is stated that the Rev. Joshus Soule, weeks afterwards could not even raise the color. senior hishon of the Methodist Episcopal Church. They then went to Dirt Hole Creek and discoved-a quartz vein which promised to pay tole rably well. Application was made to the Comners to secure it, when it was found that SMITH WILKIESON, Esq., died at Pomfret, Ct., the Legislative Council had to be consulted, and o license had yet been issued for working quartz

They offered to grant licenses on the following. terms: To employ forty men, and pay $7,50 per month license for each man; to give good security to the amount of $10,000; to have machinery in operation within six months, time sufficient to employ the above number of men-togood advantage; and 16 per cent of all the w gold deduced for the crown. This was sufficient in gold deduced for the crown. This was sumctent to deter the party from working. They returned to Sydney as soon as possible. Crimes of all ending description are rife in the land, and highway robberies are of daily occurrence. Californians are much disliked by the lower class, who boast is written are much disliked by the lower class, who boast of having corred their country seven or fourteen men.

of having served their country seven or fourteen The organ given to the crew of the Prince Albert, by the Royal Consort, proved a source of great enjoyment. When they were visited by destitute and miserable, and without the least the Esquimaux at Pond's Bay, the instrument prospect of being able to get away. These advants brought on dock, and the effects of its tones venturers were all heartily rejoiced to once more set their feet on California soil. Their experience will not induce many to leave a laud where labor is so well rewarded, for the awful uncertainties of Australia.

An extract of a letter, dated Sydney, from large quantity of onions. They have two Business has been good, and is now better than bourne newspapers, which will give all the news, and rather astonish the Californ and rather astonish the Californians: For instance, one week's escort brought 105,000 ounces, the third week 120,000 ounces—in all 307,000 ounces in three weeks, of value £3 10s per of that "rich Irish brogue" in Ohio, as he did ounce, is one million and seventy-four thou pounds sterling! Labor is higher than ever seamen's wages from £8 to £12 per month; ser vants are not to be had. Every one seems to be getting wealthy. There are several ships load-
