CAPT. KED.-We have received a romance by J. H. Ingranam, bearing this tiffb. The adventures of Capt. Kyd were the very essence of romance. Compared with his, the ex-ploits of all other sea-rovers dwindle into insignificanco. His namo-however much his wild excer may be condemned-will live for centuries as that of one whose pirato flag waved defance to the united javies, while it carried terror to the half-armed merchantinen, of both Europe and America
